CLASSROOM NEWS

This week in Preschool we continued to learn about our 5 senses. We had smelling bottles with peppermint, lemon, pumpkin pie spice, garlic, and cinnamon. Today the kids got to have a popcorn "snack" and we talked about how we use each of our senses for popcorn. This week our books are: I Went Walking, My Five Senses, Ms. Tessa's Touch And Feel Book, The Listening Walk & Me And My Senses.

In our Sensory Table this week I put in colored foam pieces and scissors. The kids thought it was pretty neat they got to cut up all that foam. This gave them great practice snipping and cutting.

We finished our class book about our 5 senses. Each child will take turns bringing it home to look at with you. Keep an eye out for the book in your child's folder next week. Please make sure you send it back to school the next day!
