Houston County School District Georgia Scholars

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Six Houston County School District seniors were named 2021 Georgia Scholars by the Georgia Department of Education (GaDOE). Georgia Scholars have achieved excellence in both their school and community. They receive a special seal for their diploma.

Congratulations to the following students (pictured from left):

- ★ Rumi Lee, Houston County High;
- ★ Emma Ringe, Houston County High;
- ★ Brenley Fouse, Perry High;
- ★ Charles Levi Shelton, Perry High;
- ★ Zander Narum, Warner Robins High; and
- ★ Farinaz Zahiri, Warner Robins High.

Olethia Thomas, Director of Gifted Education and AP Coordinator, commented, "We celebrate our Georgia Scholars who excel in all areas, to include their schoolwork, community and home. It's phenomenal what these seniors have accomplished, even in the midst of a pandemic this school year. Sincerest congratulations and best wishes to our extraordinary students as they help create a brighter future for us all."

MORE

Georgia Scholars exhibit excellence in all phases of school life, community activities and in the home. They carry rigorous course loads during their four years of high school and perform at the highest levels in all courses. These students also successfully participated in interscholastic events and have assumed active roles in extracurricular activities sponsored by their schools.

The Georgia Scholar program is coordinated by the GaDOE Excellence Recognition Office, through local coordinators in school systems across the state. For more information, please contact Thomas at 478-988-6200, ext. 3450, or Olethia.Thomas@hcbe.net.
