On March 15th – 17th, thousands of middle and high school Family and Consumer Sciences students across the state attended the Georgia FCCLA State Leadership Conference in Atlanta, Georgia. Students were challenged to “spy” their inner leader by engaging in leadership sessions, educational workshops, networking opportunities, and competitive events.

At the 2019 State Leadership Conference, Houston County High School FCCLA members excelled in their leadership skills and received outstanding recognition for various successes in FCCLA. Many FCCLA competitors from Houston County High School shined in competitive events, bringing home ten gold medals, six silver medals, and five bronze medals in STAR Event Competitions.

Congratulations to the following students:

- Emma Owens and Madeline Hagemann – gold and advancing to nationals in Focus on Children, Senior;
- Megha Patel, Cristina Espinoza, and Jaidan Beal – gold and advancing to nationals in Illustrated Talk, Senior;
- Nikita Shetty and Elizabeth Deal – 1st place, silver, and advancing to nationals in Environmental Ambassador, Senior;
