Dedication

Class of '94 Motto

The mighty class of '94
Was not reputed to be a bore
We lived and played without reserve
And had to cope with our, just "deserves"
Our memories we chose without a thought...
Our future lives (We have delinquently sought)
Will depend on our lessons, both good and bad
And how we coped with the joyous and the sad.
We have learned in the Ivy Halls,
Of mice and men, guys and dolls.
Of truth and fallacy; of death and life,
Of priorities, goals; lone and strife.

Class colors: Teal and black
Class flower: Teal rose

We, the senior class of '94, would like to dedicate this annual first and most importantly, to Scott Poxleitner, we are wishing the best for you in the future.

Second, we would like to thank Mr. Frank Guenther for his time and help for this annual.

Third, we would like to thank Mr. John Carlson for his patience and contributions to our class.

Fourth, to Mary Poxleitner for always being there to take our messages and giving us a warm helpful smile to brighten our day.

Last of all, we would like to give special thanks to our parents who have helped us through the good and the bad throughout the years.
