

Randolph County School System

“STAR³ Students” for February 2021

Coleridge Elementary School - William McSwain - 3rd Grade

Will McSwain is a respectful, friendly student who is always positive at school. Will always does his best in completing all of his assignments. He makes sure to get everything complete, even if that means taking it home to finish as homework. In class, Will participates and engages in all activities, is always kind to others, and is always willing to patiently help a classmate who is struggling. With such an amazing attitude, drive to do his best, and a heart for helping others, Will is a prime example of a Coleridge Rocket! Coleridge Elementary School is proud to recognize William McSwain as our STAR³ Student for February.

Eastern Randolph High School - Alexis Holloway - 11th Grade

Alexis Holloway is truly an inspiring young student. She has been through difficult challenges, yet still has been able to be extremely successful in school and very motivated to achieve great things. At Eastern Randolph, Alexis is involved with the Junior Civitan Club and is a very active member of the Catalyst Dance Company. Dance is Alexis' passion and her dream is to attend UNC-Greensboro and major in Dance and minor in Psychology. In her spare time, she works a part-time job and enjoys reading and listening to music. Alexis' teachers say she is kind to everyone and genuinely cares for the well-being of her peers. Alexis is a bright spot at Eastern Randolph High School during these difficult times and her passion and positive outlook on life make us proud to recognize as our February STAR³ Student.

Farmer Elementary School - Cody Hefner - 1st Grade

Cody Hefner seems to always have a positive attitude and even with a mask he has an infectious smile. He works hard academically and is always willing to help his peers. Cody is respectful and well-mannered, always says "please" and "thank you," and answers every question with a "yes sir/no sir" or "yes ma'am/no ma'am." We are very proud to have Cody Hefner represent Farmer Elementary School as our STAR³ Student for February.

Seagrove Elementary School - Jessica Aguilar Moreno - 3rd Grade

Jessica Aguilar Moreno works hard in anything she does. She is well-mannered and respectful, and has done an excellent job with virtual learning. Jessica logs onto Google meets consistently and always works hard in class. She is a delightful young student. Congratulations to Jessica Aguilar Moreno, Seagrove Elementary School's STAR³ Student for February.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Katelyn Brown - 7th Grade

Katelyn Brown pushes hard each day to get her work done correctly. She works hard on days she is at home and also when she has in-person classes. Katelyn is a strong leader and role model in the classroom, is always willing to help, and is very respectful and kind to others. If you ever have a rough day, you can count on Katelyn's smiling face to cheer you up. Outside of the classroom, Katelyn excels in many sports including softball, basketball, and volleyball for our school. In her free time, Katelyn enjoys painting. Southeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to have Katelyn Brown as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southmont Elementary School - Sophia Meza Romero - Kindergarten

Sophia Meza Romero is a great example for her peers. She is always on task and is helpful to those in need. Sophia knows how to make others feel welcome around her and is always up for the task ahead. She has made great progress and we are very proud of her. We are happy to recognize Sophia Meza Romero as Southmont Elementary School's STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Brayden Rich - 9th Grade

Brayden Rich goes above and beyond in and out of the classroom. He is a most respectful student and greets everyone with a smile. His teachers note that he is always willing to help those around him while maintaining a positive attitude. Brayden is self-motivated and works hard in all of his classes. He is an active member in class discussions, avidly participates remotely, asks questions, and shows superb effort. His personality shines throughout our school building, and his spirit makes our school a better place. Southwestern Randolph High School is excited to have Brayden Rich as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Jesus Aguilar Sosa - 8th Grade

Jesus Aguilar Sosa is a very diligent student. He is intent on completing quality school work, turns his assignments in on time (even during remote instruction days), and balances chemical equations faster than anyone observed in science this year. Jesus' writing in science is a joy to read, because he truly takes an interest in current events. He uses data and facts in his writing, but also clearly expresses why a topic is important to him. Jesus is friendly, helpful to other students, and is well-liked by his peers. He has quiet strength about him and it is evident he will do great things in whatever he puts his mind to. We are proud to recognize Jesus Aguilar Sosa as Southwestern Randolph Middle School's STAR³ Student for February.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Jay Mason - 2nd Grade

Jay Mason came to Tabernacle as a first grader, and after some initial challenges, has made much growth in all areas. He has made significant academic progress and excels in math. He completes all work and participates in class. When working remotely, he attends all classes and engages with teachers. Jay's growth is amazing and so is he! He is a super sweet child with so much personality. With all the obstacles Jay has overcome, he is the definition of Cougar Pride. We are proud to have Jay Mason represent Tabernacle Elementary School as our STAR³ Student for February.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Kamryn Heerschap - 7th Grade

Kamryn Heerschap is a true asset to Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve. She is held in high regard by her fellow peers and leads with a true example of respect. Kamryn is an intelligent, responsible, and personable young student. Her effort is always top-notch and she goes above and beyond our expectations. Kamryn's exemplary work ethic and performance lead her to naturally be a positive role model for her peers. When working remotely, Kamryn consistently attends Google Meets, asks questions, and actively participates in class. In face-to-face class, she continues this excellence and also provides help to her peers. It is with great confidence that Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve selects Kamryn Heerschap as our STAR³ Student for February.
