Robin Cribb

"Never give up on a dream just because of the time it will take to accomplish it. The time will pass anyway."

Derrick Mohs

"If you don't know where you're going, you can never get lost!"

Stacy Neft

"A smile is an inexpensive way to look good!"

Jay Waldo

"Life is Pain...anyone who says differently is selling something."

Kevin Waldo

"It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice."

Alexis Daken

"Love doesn't make the world go 'round Love is what makes the ride worthwhile."

Kristie Adams

"How come dumb stuff seems so smart while your doing it?"

Corey Myhre

"I might be a handsome prince, but I'd rather be a horny toad!"

Teresa Krueth

"I always knew that I'd look back at my tear and laugh, but I never thought that I'd look back at my laughter and cry."

Kristen Eggen

"Don't play dumb your not as good at it as I am."

Nathan Smischney

"Don't hurt me because I'm beautiful!"

Jennifer Nelson

"I have the simplest tastes, I'm always satisfied with the best!"

Matthew Smischney

"Failure is not an option."

Jami Pankow

"Have the courage to live, anyone can die!"

Steve Geerdes

"If at first you don't succeed, you are running about average."

Lana Smischney

"Dream as if you'll live forever, Live as if you'll die today."

Nathan Heim

"The big fish always gets away, that's why they're big!"

Danny Giroux

"A ship in a harbor is safe, but that's not what a ship is built for."

Kelli Bronczyk

"Life is not a spectator sport, if walkin' is all your gonna do then you'll watch your life go by without you."

Larry Johnson

Nils Hoyum

"Early to Rise, Early to Bed, Makes a Man Healthy, But Socially Dead!"

Rosa (Schuh) Lossing

"The price for independence is often isolation and solitude."

Gary Nelson

"The death of fear is in doing what you fear to do."

Delsie Richardson

"Life is made up of small pleasures. Happiness is made up of those tiny successes. The big ones come too infrequently. And if you don't collect all these tiny successes, the big ones don't really mean anything."

Kevin Heinonen

"Reach for the stars, go as low as you can to get there."

Rachel Clark

Remember When...

Hey Alexis & Kelli, remember when we forgot our cheerleading skirts so we took Kelli's old car to each one of our houses, when we where on our way back to the school the car ran out of gas. So we ran (by foot) to Kelliher Auto Sales and got a ride back to school. Needless to say we only missed 10 minutes of the coronation.

Remember when Alexis fell through the globe in fourth grade :>)
--Lana Smischney

Teresa ate fruit loops in a cup and I slipped on her kitchen floor.
--Jami Pankow

We used to throw toilet paper rolls and wet toilet paper at the ceiling and at the cars from the boys bathroom. --Nils Hoyum

Mr. Johnson would fall asleep during class and when he woke up the room would be completely messy.
I pulled down Lana's pants in fourth grade and she didn't pull them up for what seemed like 5 minutes :>O --Alexis Baken

When Kristen yelled out in front of our whole English class "I am GAP" because she thought no one was listening. --Teresa Krueth

Mr. Coyle fell on his head when we robbed Nathan Smischney from a base hit in gym class playing softball. Absolutely two thumbs up: way to go fast Eddie! :>) Nathan Heim

In 1st grade we were playing kick ball and the kids were in alphabetical order. I was behind Derrick Mlohs in the excitement of the game, I was watching another girl kick the ball as she kicked the ball, I kicked Derrick right square in the butt. I was totally humiliated! --Stacy Neft

To The Class Of 1999

*Every journey has its ending;
 Every road will sometimes bend.
 You have reached a destination--
 High school days are at an end.*

*Now your future lies before you.
 Now the choices must be made.
 Face this time with pride and courage.
 Don't be timid or afraid.*

*You've prepared yourselves; you're ready.
 You're the class of '99,
 Now you're looking to your future,
 To the goals you want to find.*

*And as you go your different paths,
 Remember us who stay behind.
 We worked to give the skills you need.
 We strove to open every mind.*

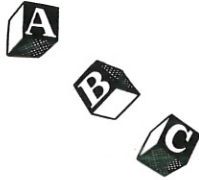

*Go forth with hope; go forth with faith.
 Remember what you know is true.
 We wish you joy and much success
 In everything you want to do.*

*You have our love; you have our hearts.
 In spirit we are with you still.
 The future's yours to seek and find--
 The dreams you're wanting to fulfill.*

Senior Wills

I, Jami Pankow, will my sister Lea Angela the ability to get a curfew like mine, stay out late, and learn to party. To my little brothers, the ability to stay sweet and do whatever you want. I will D.J. the ability to stay sweet, not to kill my brother, and take it easy on the yellow submarine. I will Amanda M. the ability to be happy cause life does get easier, and the ability to forget about those who don't mind their own business, stay sweet (There are a lot who care!!). To underclassmen, be strong, party lots, the years go by fast, so take care. To the class of 99', I love you and good luck in the future.

I, Lana Smischney, being of worn out body and mind will all the yearbook duties to Randi Houchin have fun next year!! I will all my cheerleading abilities to Mollie Olson because you're the only one left now. To Nick Cribb, my cuz, I will my beautiful smile, so smile bud you'll feel better.

I, Kevin Waldo, will my ability to play the trap set to Billy Thayer. My ability to drive in the winter to Luke Lundin. I will my golfing ability to Tyler Pink. I will my ability to not let anything bother me to Amanda Mohs. I will my three point shots to Opie.

I, Delsie Joy Richardson, will to my sister Melody the other half of our room, until I return. To my mom, my horses until I return from college. To my dad, all that's left of my patience and hope. To my other sisters and brothers, this advice: always have fun, but don't goof off in school it doesn't pay to work hard and then slack off because in the end you'll pay the consequences.

I, Jared Shogren, will everything to my younger brother Eric.

I, Kelli Bronczyk (M.P.), first will to my little bro my locker and all the fun times of KHS. To little sis (C.T.), my #22. To Virgin Star (B.B.), my weekends. To Drag Queen (K.K), my ability to stand alone, be strong, and smile. "Hey it's Friday." To Emily, my big brother. To Sarah, road trips to ball games. Last to the rest of KHS, have fun it goes by fast.

I, Dan the man, will to Luke my Basketball number. To Mark, my football number. To Nick, my ability to hit the long ball. To Jon R., my lungs because he's going to need them pretty soon.

I, Jennifer Nelson, of unstable mind and battered body will to Peter, Luke, and Simon my athletic ability (you guys need the power of a women). To Liz and Tom, I will you my personality, but not all of it, remember that if you treat people good and with respect you will gain the same. To Anne Mostad-Jensen, I will you my height for basketball. To Liv Mostad-Jensen, I will you my catching ability in softball (I know you don't need it but that's the best thing that I could come up with). To my tall little buddies Janell and Ashley, I will you my leadership qualities for basketball because you guys are awesome!!! To the rest of the underclassmen, have fun, stay out of trouble and what the heck have some more fun. Oh yeah last but certainly not least to my bestest and greatest sister Erin, I will you the ability to speak your mind and to tell people where to go when they make you mad (I know that over the years you have had enough practice with that).

I, Kristie Adams, being of worn out mind and battered body will the following to my brothers, Junior and Raymond. I will you my academic abilities and my abilities to put up with the rents. Have fun!! To my cousin, Randi, I will you my softball abilities and all of the Mountain Dew!! To dear Mollie, I will my ability to not get grounded!! Ha, Ha, Ha! To Beth H., I will my cheerleading abilities. To Liz and Andrea, I will my ability to have fun and stay out late. To my other cousin Josh, I will you Junior. To all of the underclassmen have fun and enjoy your final years of high school.

I, Stacy Neft, with my ready to get outta here body and soul wills Allison my basketball number and feeding cows. To Jody, all the trouble that I got into, now it's your turn!! To Jenna, kiddo you have enough stuff! To Adam, Tyler, and Nick, my partying abilities! To Amanda, the ability to see that you really are a beautiful person! To Ashley and Janell, my position in basketball, you go girls! To Magalie, Anne, Liv, Elizabeth, Ashley, Janell, Sonja, and everyone else that goes to summer basketball, to have fun road tripping!! To Magalie, my mooning ability!

I, Steven Allen Geerdes, will D.J. Pink my fullback skills, because he needs them bad. To Luke Lundin, my quarterback skills, you never know what you'll be playing. Finally to Janell, all the rest of my football skills for next years power puff game.

I, Nathan Heim, will my football #63 to Tom Tichy. To Fluffy, I pray for him to grow a pair so he can tear it up next year in football. I will my athletic ability to Mouse Hanson. I will my ability to get down and party to Luke. I will my ability to eat cheesy puffs to Bildo Thayer. To D.J. Pink, I have to will him my ability to snow board. You better take lessons, Ha, Ha!! I will my football ability to the Spanketts. Finally I will my ability to get along with people to Amanda.

I, Teresa Krueth, will my little sister Trisha to have the courage to find a true friend (I know it'll be hard, but if I can do it so can you), and also my ability to get along with our parents and to get out of the house alive. I also will to Elizabeth Schuh my athletic ability and my ability to stay out of the ditch.

I, Robin Cribb, of sound mind and body will to my brother Nick my ability to listen to teachers, turn homework in on time, and my ability to be kind. He may do with these what he wants. To Randi, I will the ability to be happy and non-moody. To Anne and Liv, I wish you luck in Knowledge Bowl. To Mollie, I wish you luck in speech. To all underclassmen, I hope you reach all of your goals and dreams, remember to have fun because life is too short.

I, Alexis Daken, of excited soul will to D.J. all my oregano. To Mollie, my awesome driving skills. To all the underclassmen, my ability to be strong and get through anything.

I, Nils Hoyum, will . . . yeah, like I have anything you want!!!

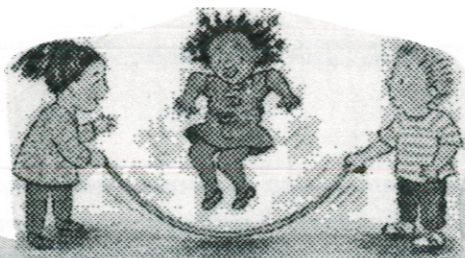

I, Kristen Eggen, being of tortured body and very little mind that I have left will Chelsy Pink my locker and the ability to stay out of the rosebushes, and my cousin Carrie to enjoy her many years in school. Also to Lana "Whatever!!!"

Jared,
Now that you are almost grown I look back and ask myself, Did I tell you?
Did I tell you all that I meant to tell you.
All that I felt was important. Did I tell you or was it lost in the shuffle of our everyday lives. The busy full days when we taught and didn't know it.
What did we teach? Was it strong?
Was it good? Will it root in you something real that will allow you to grow with a firm and sound foundation?
Did I tell you these things as we went along the way? If I did I am humbly grateful. If I did not then you must choose for yourself. If it has meaning does not ... discard it. Your life is your to build as you choose.
And did we tell you to have a good life.
We Love You...

Paste-Up Crew: Lana Smischney, Robin Cribb, Nils Hoyum, Randi Houchin, and Molly Olson.

Final Production Crew: Lana Smischney, Robin Cribb, and Nils Hoyum.

The Elementary section was put together by the elementary teachers and staff, each being responsible for his or her class, taking pictures and pasting up.

In the 4th and 5th grade the students were a great help in decision making and pasting up.

The Yearbook Staff would like to thank the elementary for making their short deadlines and doing such a great job.

As the Yearbook advisor I would like to thank everyone for sharing pictures and being so patient on picture day when classes are disrupted for students to be a part of club and organization pictures.

I would also like to thank my staff especially those who hung in there to the last. You all did a great job and I look forward to next years' Yearbook Adventure!

Northome-Kelliher Speech Team Competes

by Cindy Starkey, Speech Advisor

The Northome-Kelliher Speech Team is reaping the benefits of its early jump start. Many team members did not have even one weekend off in between the one-act play contest and speech, but the grind is worth it! Results were gratifying from both the Roseau and the Bagley meets.

Winners at Roseau include the following: Carson Starkey--first place; Mollie Olson and Kristie Adams--red ribbon; Nils Hoyum and Nathan Schmishney--blue ribbon; Shuana Lee Scanlan--third place trophy.

Kelliher Fields Its First Mock Trial Team

by Lana Smischney

Mock Trial was a new thing at Kelliher High School. We had a small team, so we all took a variety of roles. Our first competition was at Roseau, where the Defense Attorneys (Jody Neft, Mollie Olson, and Lana Smischney) presented their case. Our Defense Witnesses were played by Stacy Neft, Sonja Hoyum, and Kristie Adams.

Our second trip was to Red Lake Falls where we presented the Prosecution's case. Our Prosecution Attorneys were Kristie Adams, Sonja Hoyum, and Randi Houchin, and the Prosecution Witnesses were played by Lana Smischney, Stacy Neft, and Jody Neft. This was a great experience where we all learned many new things. Pictured left to right are Kristie Adams, Sonja Hoyum, Stacy Neft, Jody Neft, Mollie Olson, and Lana Smischney.

The Mock Trial Competition is sponsored yearly by the Minnesota Bar Association. It is a simulation exercise which not only helps students learn about the workings of the legal system, but sharpens their abilities in critical thinking, analysis, interpretation, and public speaking.

We are very grateful to Dee Sweeney and Kris Kolar of the Bemidji Public Defender's Office for all their work with us.

The Old Kelliher School Reduced to a Pile of Rubble

Last Monday, the demolition of the Kelliher Public School commenced. It was built, as were most schools in that era, by the community. The first Kelliher School went up in flames, and the money, hands, and skills were found to build a new school. A flat spot now exists where the school stood for seventy years.

The Old Kelliher School the end and the beginning of an era

by Karla Patch-Anderson

It was a cold drizzly morning when I headed out the door, and why not, it seemed appropriate for the event that lay ahead. Yes today was the day the old school was to come down.

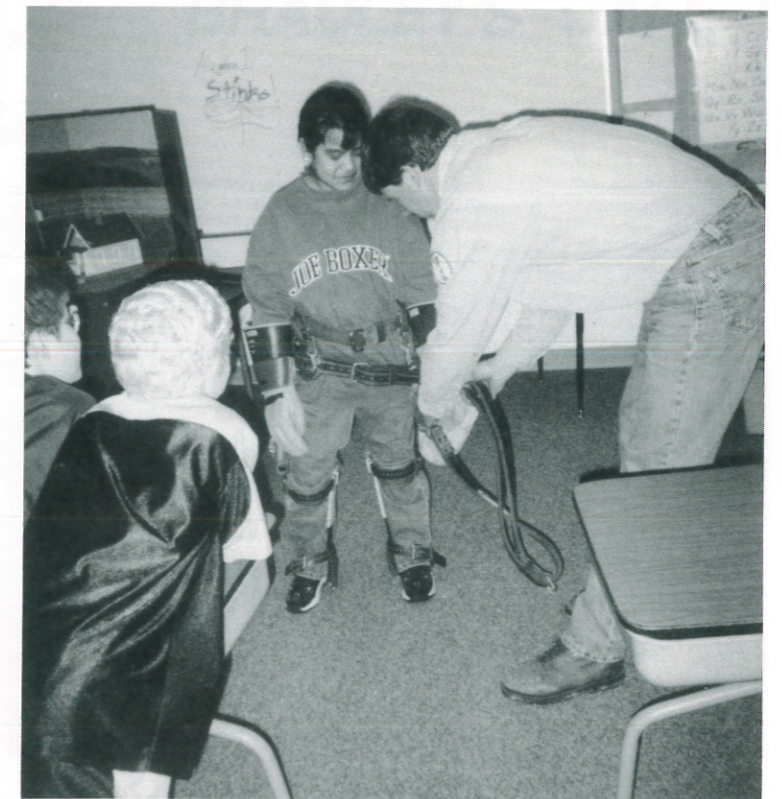

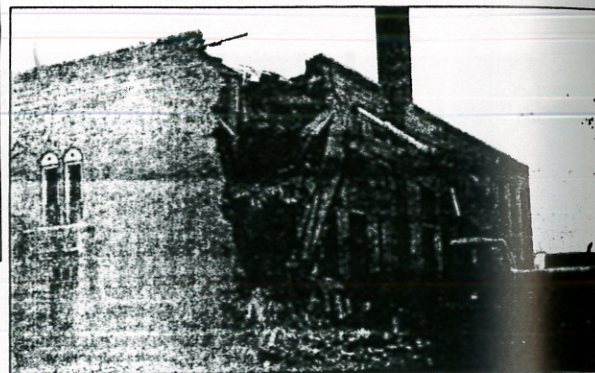

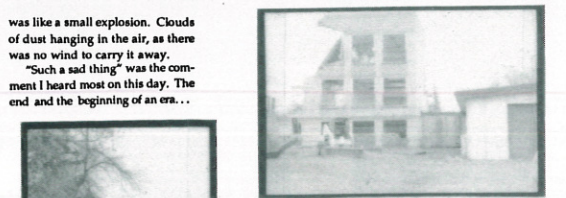

My children started kindergarten in this school. The day we told them the old school would be torn down they cried saying what a terrible thing it was.

Despite the weather it brought out the crowds. A gentleman who stood next to me was of the first graduating class from the Old Kelliher School. Some parents pulled their kids out of school for the day to be assured they would see history being made, or taken away. Some just came to spectate. Once demolition started, students were released from their classes at the new school.

Even though it was sad to see the old building go, everyone was fascinated by the machinery. With each move it made the crowd would try to predict which way the next piece of wall would fall.

As it moved toward the front of the building there was much whispering in the crowd as to whether they would salvage the name and year at the top of the building. As the 'claw' drew nearer there came a silence over the crowd. Finally there was great gasps when as the plate crumbled to the ground.

When the smoke stack crashed to the ground the crowd yelled with excitement not knowing which direction it would fall. It
