

WAO Education Foundation

RECAP OF NOVEMBER 18th MEETING

The WAO Public School Education Foundation met November 18th at the WAOHS Library at 5:30. Members present were Pam Jubie, Dewey Swanson, Russell Miller, Sally Roller, Carol Bowman, Ellen Strickler, and Carol Anderson, and Carol Sedgeman. Ed Rosendahl was absent.

Some highlights from the meeting are:

Carol shared a video that Danielle Klassy had made for a class that she was taking. It was a persuasive speech on Why People Should Become a Member of the WAO Education Foundation. Danielle gave permission for us to use the video if we wished. She did an awesome job on it.

Carol Sedgeman gave an update on the High Heels Quilt project and told where the ticket locations will be and where the quilt will be displayed. The drawing will be at the elementary Christmas concert.

The WAO, Warren, Alvarado, Oslo, and Valley North Yearbook project is moving along.

The Industrial Tech Department completed and delivered a beautiful cabinet for game storage in the elementary. This was a spring need.

The AEW luncheon for all school personnel was held the day before

Approval for $1,000 for the playground fund was approved.

We will serve pudding cups after the elementary concert.

Board members volunteered to do Christmas cards from the Foundation.

Appreciation for work on the newsletter was expressed.

The Baked Potato Supper/Salad Bar will be February 9th. Mary Stanislawski and her husband will again donate the potatoes.

Donations and Memorials for the past month were approved.

The next meeting will be January 20th at 5:30.
