District Honors Teachers and Employees of the Year Announces Houston County Teacher of the Year ~ MAES Kathy Releford

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County School System honored 38 Teachers of the Year and six Employees of the Year during the system’s Opening Session on July 25, 2019. The systemwide Teacher of the Year and four finalists were announced for the first time. Dr. Kathy Releford (pictured) of Matt Arthur Elementary School is the 2019-2020 Houston County Teacher of the Year.

Dr. Releford teaches special education and has taught in the district for 10 years. Raised in Millen, Ga. and a graduate of Jenkins County High, she has earned three degrees. Dr. Releford has an accounting degree from Georgia Southern University, a master’s in education from the University of Phoenix, and a doctorate in curriculum and instruction from the University of Phoenix.

Born to Robert and Harriet Pierce, she is the baby of 10 children and the first to pursue education beyond high school. She is married to Lewis Releford and has four children and one grandchild.

The four finalists for systemwide Teacher of the Year (TOTY) are:

- ★ Bonaire Middle ~ Brenda Taylor
- ★ Lake Joy Primary School ~ Tamra Andrews
- ★ Tucker Elementary School ~ Susan Jolly
- ★ Warner Robins High ~ Nicholas Sostillio.

The 2019-2020 Employees of the Year (EOTY) were honored during the ceremony. Congratulations to:

- ★ Bus Driver of the Year: Tonya Grant
- ★ Bus Monitor of the Year: Terrence Kendrick
- ★ Custodian of the Year: Marcus Hayes, Veterans High School
- ★ Distribution Center Employee of the Year: Daniel Rice
