TEACH TOMORROW'S leaders

I love my job because we truly are a united community. I've felt supported and valued since my first day. I love that I can directly impact the academic and social-emotional growth of my students to help them succeed.

AMBER HARDEE
HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER

Houston County gives me the opportunity to collaborate with other teachers through professional learning communities and trainings. Their focus on development allows me to continue my education to better myself as an educator and enhance the instruction I give my students.

GRAHAM DYKES
MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHER
