

FAMILY GUIDANCE CENTER of ALABAMA

Kids and Kin Program

A Statewide Program for Relative Child Care Providers

Kids and Kin is a FREE statewide program to provide support and assistance for grandparents, aunts, uncles, and older siblings who provide child care for their relatives' children.

Earn while you learn by enrolling in the Voluntary Certification Program.

Receive up to $150 in toys and educational materials FREE for your home.

Plus, FREE children's books and door prizes and your choice of a smoke alarm, carbon monoxide detector or first aid kit when you enroll.

Join a Kids and Kin group in your county and start learning from experts about a wide range of helpful topics in a small supportive group. Kids and Kin groups are fun, educational and beneficial for today's child care provider and offer information and connections to additional community resources.
