

World History & Geography Syllabus

Colby Brown

Room E16

Colby.brown@chestercountyschools.org

Course Overview:

Welcome to World History! Over the course of two semesters, you will study major events and eras that define the world we live in today. It is my goal to make history relevant in hopes that it will help you become a better citizen.

Course Outline:

Part A: Absolutism, The Enlightenment, French Revolution, Industrial Revolution, Imperialism, the American Civil War, Europe pre-WWI

Part B: WWI, The Interwar Years, WWII, The Cold War, The Civil Rights Movement, Globalism and the Modern World

MOE:

Units are broken down into a series of specific lessons. After every two lessons, you will have a quiz. Most units will include a cumulative project at the end as well as test. The key to success is organization and participation.

Grading Scale:

A=93-100

B=85-92

C=75-84

D=70-74

Required materials:

- 2-2 ½ inch 3-ring binder
- loose leaf paper
- coloring pencils, markers, or crayons
- 2 packs of dividers

Google Classroom Code: _____

Classroom Policies

Missed Assignment Policy-

-If you are absent and miss an assignment, the assignment will be placed in the missed assignment folder. You will have one week from the date of your absence to complete the assignment. Once completed, submit the assignment and fill out the absent work folder.

Classroom Attendance Policy-

-Class attendance is not optional. If you are on campus, you will be expected to report to class. If your class attendance becomes an issue, the teacher reserves the right to contact administration and parents/guardians.

Classroom Rules-

- No food or drink (except water) unless otherwise approved
- Respect one another as well as the teacher. Disrespect of any kind will not be tolerated
- Come to class prepared
- No restroom passes. Go before you come to class.
- Remain in dress code. Do not enter unless you are in dress code.

Discipline Procedures-

- 1st offense- verbal warning
- 2nd offense- 1-on-1 conversation with parent contact
- 3rd offense- office referral/ parent conference

Plagiarism Policy-

-If you are caught cheating on any assignment, writing or assessment, the result is a forfeit of your grade and an office referral.

Classroom Compliance Form

By signing below, I hereby acknowledge the policies and procedures of the class as well as the consequences for violating class policy. I understand that this syllabus can be changed by the teacher at any time.

Student: _____

Parent: _____

Date: _____