National Assessment for Educational Progress (NAEP)  The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) is the largest nationally representative and continuing assessment of what America's students know and can do in various subject areas.  Administration Window: January 28–March 8 (Tentative)  Required: Yes  Applicable Federal/State Law: Administered in accordance with the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) of 2015, which requires the state to participate in the biennial state academic assessments of fourth and eighth grade reading and mathematics. Districts that receive Title I funds are required to participate.  Purpose &amp; Use: Only a small sample of Tennessee fourth and eighth graders will take this test. This test, often called the nation's report card, measures Tennessee's academic achievement against other states also taking this test.  Results to Parents &amp; Students: No student level results provided See more at: https://www.tn.gov/education/assessment/naep.html	60-90 minutes
District Formative Assessments  Universal Screeners: Easy CBM  Administration Window: Fall, Winter, and Spring Required: Yes  Applicable Federal/State Law: Universal screeners are required by TDOE to determine students eligible for additional services.  Purpose and Use: A universal screener is administered to ALL students to determine whether students demonstrate the skills necessary to achieve grade-level standards. Universal screening reveals which students are performing at or above the level considered necessary for achieving long-term success (general outcome measures). This data can also serve as a benchmark for measuring the improvement of a group, class, grade, school, or district. Universal screening can be used to identify students in need of further intervention due to identified skill deficits below the 25th percentile. A more precise assessment may be needed to determine a student's specific area(s) of deficit before beginning an intervention. Student progress will be monitored every two weeks in the areas of identified skill deficits.  Results to Parents and Students: Parents will receive universal screening results with the student's progress report.	Marion County uses Easy CBM to assess basic reading and math skills three times per year. Reading measures include early literacy, fluency, comprehension and vocabulary. Early literacy and fluency are both comprised of two 1-minute probes. While comprehension and vocabulary measures are untimed, comprehension usually takes students up to 30 minutes and vocabulary takes approximately 10-15 minutes. Math measures skills in number and operations, geometry, and measurement and all are untimed but generally take between 8-15 minutes each for completion.
ACT  Administration Window: Sept. 22-25, Sept 28-Oct. 2, Oct. 20, Oct. 20-23 and 26  March 2, March 2-5, March 8-12, March 2-4, March 9-11  Required: Yes  Applicable Federal/State Law: Pursuant to T.C.A. § 49-6-6001, all public school students must participate in a postsecondary readiness assessment such as the ACT or SAT. Districts may choose to administer the ACT or the SAT. Districts can also provide both assessments and allow their students to choose the assessment that is right for them. To receive a regular high school diploma, all students enrolled in a Tennessee public school during their eleventh (11) grade year must take either the ACT or SAT. Beginning with the graduating class of 2018, students enrolled in Tennessee public schools during their eleventh grade year must complete the ACT or SAT prior to graduation (see High School Policy 2.103).  Purpose and Use:  The ACT is a national college admissions examination that consists of subject area tests in:  English – Mathematics – Reading – Science    The ACT with writing includes the four subject area tests plus a 40-minute writing test.	Length of Assessments:  English – 45 minutes  Mathematics – 60 minutes  Reading – 35 minutes  Science – 35 minutes
