DORCHESTER SCHOOL DISTRICT FOUR STUDENT CHROMEBOOK / HOTSPOT / IPADS ACCEPTABLE USE AND PERMISSION FORM

The intent of this contract is to ensure that Users of Dorchester District Four Technology Devices will comply with all acceptable use policies and be informed of liability if devices are lost, stolen or damaged when in students' use.

IN EXCHANGE FOR the use of district devices at home or at school, I understand and agree to the following:

- A. All policies in the Network and Internet Agreement form will be followed when using a district-issued device at school or home.
- B. The district reserves all rights to any files that are stored on district-issued devices and will remove any material which the district, at its sole discretion, believes is illegal, pornographic, obscene or otherwise objectionable.
- C. Users may lose the privilege of using a district-issued device if any of the above policies are broken and or they abuse the equipment, download objectionable material, send obscene or inappropriate emails, engage in cyber bullying, and any unethical uses of the device.
- D. The parent or legal guardian is liable for all damages and repairs that are not normal wear of the device. The parent/guardian will be responsible to pay a fee of $75.00 if their child's CHROMEBOOK / HOTSPOT/IPAD is lost or stolen. The parent/guardian will be responsible to pay a fee of $40.00 for a power cord replacement or a damaged CHROMEBOOK/HOTSPOT/IPad. This is similar to being assigned an expensive textbook.

The parent and student must sign and have on file an Acceptable Use Agreement and a CHROMEBOOK / HOTSPOT/IPAD Acceptable Use Agreement and Permission Form.

I agree with and am willing to follow the above.
