DEAR ST. PATRICK FAMILY, Thank you to everyone for your confidence, well wishes and support, as I take on this new role as DRE. My Faith, St. Patrick's and the children of our parish, have a deep place in my heart.

Please have patience with me as I orient and adjust to this new position. I believe Faith Formation and Religious Education, is a life-long endeavor, as we journey toward Heaven. My intention is to create an environment of learning from age 0-100. Many of our programs will keep their familiar place, and hopefully we will add new ways to learn about our beautiful Faith. I'm excited about the addition of FORMED to our parish. Be looking for all the info soon.

This is not a one-person mission. I need every member of St. Patrick to help keep the Faith alive and growing. I will be looking for teachers, helpers, crafters, kitchen staff and volunteers of all ages. I've already had several members interested in helping. If you have an interest, please let me know. The youth and the seasoned will have a place.

My co-teacher for several years has been Patsy Byrd and she has taught me so much and told me so many wonderful stories about her faith. If she hadn't agreed to help me, I would have never had this wonderful experience with her. I want to personally thank her for her encouragement and support these past few weeks (don't be mad with me PatPat)!

Tara Blanchard will be working with me and assisting me as we move forward. I'm so excited to have Tara grow in her faith as we make this journey together. She and her husband Jeff Blanchard, like many, are the future of St. Patrick. I see many other young couples and families, just like them that can keep our parish growing in the years to come.

Many of my former students are active in all aspects of our parish. It does my heart good to see them serving the Lord. Thank you to all who currently serve as catechists, youth ministers, lectors, extraordinary ministers and musicians.

I am dedicating my new ministry to the ones who taught me when I was young. Thank you to my parents, Rose and James Taylor; my God parents, Howard and Charlotte Jones; my first Catechists, Ann Beals, Ruby Rosato and Margie Scarvey; my Religious Mentors, Sr. Joan Harrington and Sr. Maura Sampson and all the priests who've faithfully served our parish.

There's no doubt, the events of 2020, have wounded our Church globally and locally.

We are in a new growth phase. WE ARE the people to build back our Faith. So, don't sit back and wait for it to happen.

Our Church and our Lord needs YOU!!

God bless, Lisa Dougherty
