3:00	Reading Rev 2: 12-17 Pastor: 12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: 'The words of him who has the sharp two-edged sword. 13 "'I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. Yet you hold fast my name, and you did not deny my faith even in the days of Antipas my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14But I have a few things against you: you have some there who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, so that they might eat food sacrificed to idols and practice sexual immorality. 15So also you have some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans. 16Therefore repent. If not, I will come to you soon and war against them with the sword of my mouth.  Congregation: 17He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, with a new name written on the stone that no one knows except the one who receives it.' 5:00	Family Prayers Responsive Prayer Use Crowd Mic for three men doing Litany prayer Jim Braun, Jerry Maas, Dan Gall  Father's Day Litany P: God our Heavenly Father, in Your wisdom and love You created all things. On this Father's day, we ask You to bless all men, that their example of faith and love in Christ Jesus would shine forth in their lives. Grant that we, the Church would honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. We pray for all men throughout the world and in the various seasons of fatherhood: P: Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with both joy and sacrifice. C: We, the Church, are grateful for you. P: Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father. C: We, the Church, support you. P: Let us praise those fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. C: We, the Church, uplift you. P: Let us praise those fathers who have been wounded by the neglect and hostility of their children, yet remain hopeful and faithful in a fatherly relationship with their children. C: We, the Church, hurt with you. P: Let us praise those fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives. C: We, the Church, encourage you. P: Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has offered healing. C: We, the Church, honor you. P: Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their children's love and respect. C: We, the Church, are thankful for you. P: Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold that child in their heart. C: We, the Church, remember you. P: Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own. C: We, the Church, need you. P: Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides. C: We, the Church, celebrate you. P: Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children. C: We, the Church, joyfully anticipate with you. P: And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us. C: We, the Church, remember you. P: Most gracious God and Father, we thank You for the blessed gift of a father. As we are thankful for our earthly fathers in different ways, we are most thankful for You, our heavenly Father. For you give us life on earth and, through Your Son Jesus, eternal life in His kingdom. We, Your children, praise You, who attends to all our needs and gathers us safely in Your arms until that Great Day when we will be with You face to face for all eternity.  P: (Adam inserts last petition based on congregational needs here)  Responsive Prayer P: He who has an ear to hear, C: Let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.	Switch to Slides		Adam Wolfe
