Girl, 15, Guilty In Bus Seat Case

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — A 15-year-old girl who refused to move to the rear of a city bus was found guilty in juvenile court here last Friday on charges of assault and battery, disorderly conduct and with violating a city ordinance which makes it "unlawful for any passenger to refuse or fail to take those seats assigned to the race which it belongs."

The girl, Coretta Colvin, was declared a ward of the state and placed on probation pending good behavior.

She was arrested on a bus with a Negro woman when a group of white persons boarded the bus. Clergy said he asked both the girl and the woman to move to the rear. He said the woman
