Across faiths, religious rules bent as virus alters worship. Across the United States, religious leaders are taking unprecedented steps to shield their congregations from the coronavirus - canceling services, banning large funerals and weddings, and waiving age-old requirements of their faiths.

Sandi Patty Reveals She Has Coronavirus. Christian singer Sandi Patty revealed Monday she has been diagnosed with the novel coronavirus and encouraged her fans to take the pandemic seriously. “This is not fake news,” she wrote on Facebook. “If you are not already practicing social distancing and STAYING HOME, DO SO NOW! This is what we can all do. This is how we stop the spread.

15 Saved before Large Gatherings Are Restricted over Coronavirus. Fifteen people were saved during a church service in France this Sunday, just hours before the French government restricted large gatherings due to an outbreak of the Coronavirus.

Vice President Pence shows appreciation to churches, people of faith for their role in coronavirus pandemic At a White House briefing, the vice president said tens of millions of Americans are responding to the health threat with compassion and common sense. And he singled out “communities of faith” who participated in Sunday’s National Day of Prayer.
