

Tips for Learning Coach

“Children may be more capable of competent self-directed learning than we give them credit for.”

— John Holt, American author and educator

Seven suggestions for ensuring your child is successful:

1. Guide, support, and motivate your child
2. Establish a suitable structure for the school day at home
3. Make sure your child stays focused daily
4. Monitor your child’s progress daily—verify that lessons and assignments are completed
5. Assist with time management skills
6. Ask your child what they learned today in their online courses
