RE: Students selected for Governor's School

The Governor's School of North Carolina is a five and one-half week summer residential program for intellectually gifted high school students, integrating academic disciplines, the arts, and unique courses on each of two campuses – Meredith College and Salem College. It is the oldest statewide summer residential program for academically or intellectually gifted high school students in the nation.

The following students from the Randolph County School System have been selected to attend The 2016 Governor's School:

Jessica Hardison

Southwestern Randolph High School - English
Parents: Joel and Debbie Hardison

Micah Teague

Southwestern Randolph High School - Natural Science
Parents: Michael and Susan Teague

Lauren Garner

Randleman High School - Natural Science
Parents: Leon and Jennifer Garner

Ryan Young

Wheatmore High School - Theater
Parents: James and Elizabeth Young

Congratulations to each of these students, and thank you to all the staff persons who assisted them in the application process.
