

It is important for students with hearing impairments to continue to work on language development and reading when they are away from school. The following are sites that can be beneficial to help students with language development and reading.

www.Starfall.com

www.Sheppardsoftware.com

www.Funbrain.com

www.Readworks.com