

Randolph County School System “STAR³ Students” for May 2019

Coleridge Elementary School - Alexis Spinks - 5th Grade

Alexis Spinks serves as a role model to others. She always focuses on her work, diligently striving to do her best with every assignment she is given. Beyond this, Alexis understands and demonstrates kindness and respect to her teachers, her peers, and all staff and students. It is a pleasure to have such a disciplined and polite student to shine as a fine example of what it means to be Coleridge Rocket! Coleridge Elementary School is proud to recognize Alexis Spinks as our STAR³ Student for May.

Eastern Randolph High School - Christian Castillo Villa - 11th Grade

Christian Castillo Villa is instantly identifiable to teachers, administrators, and students at Eastern Randolph High School because of his polite, positive, and friendly disposition. Christian shows kindness to everyone and is a hard worker in the classroom. His teachers describe him as selfless, determined, and a joy to teach. Christian takes Advanced Placement and honors classes to challenge himself and to prepare for college, where he plans to study to become a chiropractor. He is a leader in the Wildcat Band as a percussionist, a member of the gaming club, and avid reader. Christian Castillo Villa is a true Wildcat and Eastern Randolph High School is proud to honor him as our STAR³ Student for May.

Farmer Elementary School - Landon Luffman - 4th Grade

Landon Luffman has a true passion for knowledge. As a student he is always looking for ways to dig deeper into the meaning of our lessons and applies it to his independent learning. Landon also serves as a good role model within our school. He is respectful, responsible, and strives to improve. Landon's self-motivation is an excellent example for his peers. Farmer Elementary School is proud to name Landon Luffman our STAR³ Student for May.

Seagrove Elementary School - Lee Anderson - 3rd Grade

Lee Anderson is a good student with a big heart. He always puts forth his best effort in all of his schoolwork and doesn't let any obstacles stand in his way. Lee is friends with everyone and goes out of his way to make sure everyone is included. Seagrove Elementary School is honored to call Lee Anderson our STAR³ Student for May.

Southmont Elementary School - Braydon Tyl - 5th Grade

Braydon Tyl is an exceptional young man and student. He always is on task, completes his work on time, and strives for excellence on all assignments. Braydon is always considerate of others and their feelings. He makes sure everyone feels included and treats people with respect. Braydon is a terrific friend and role model to the other students in his class. Congratulations to Braydon Tyl, Southmont Elementary School's STAR³ Student for May.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Emily Leonard - 8th Grade

Emily Leonard is described by her teachers as one of their best students. She is responsible and trustworthy, does what she is supposed to do, and is always willing to go the extra mile. Emily is a Beta Club member and is a good role model to others. She is willing to help students any way she can and has a great personality that helps her work well with others. Emily is an active member of FFA, having participated in four career development events at the FFA Middle Grades Rally. She placed fifth in the state for Dairy Judging and placed first in the Randolph County Livestock Judging Contest. Emily Leonard is a true Wildcat, and Southeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to recognize her as our STAR³ Student for May.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Ryan Gilmore - 12th Grade

"Ryan Gilmore is the most respectable, hard-working, and dependable young man I know!" "Ryan is just plain wonderful!" These are just a couple of the positive comments made by some of Ryan's teachers. Ryan goes above and beyond in everything he does. One of his passions is agriculture, and to know Ryan is to know he loves anything agricultural in nature. In his personal time, he raises chickens and has a thriving egg business. Ryan has been an active member of our school's FFA chapter and has served as an officer the last two years. He is passionate about helping others and his career goal involves teaching agriculture. Ryan plans to continue his education at Randolph Community College and then pursue his bachelor's degree at North Carolina A & T State University. Congratulations to Ryan Gilmore, Southwestern Randolph High School's STAR³ Student for the month of May.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Marcela Rodriguez Moreno - 8th Grade

Marcela Rodriguez Moreno is a shining example of a STAR³ Student. One of Marcela's teachers says, "I can't say enough about this student and her attitude, work ethic, and helpfulness. She constantly strives to do the right thing, whether in the classroom or out. Every day is a struggle in middle school, but she has risen above it all and is thriving. I'm so glad she is sitting in my classroom." When staff members heard that Marcela was going to be our STAR³ Student, the overwhelming response was, "I'm so glad! She deserves it!" Southwestern Randolph Middle School is proud to call Marcela Rodriguez Moreno our STAR³ Student for May.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Adan Rivera - 4th Grade

Adan Rivera is a remarkable student who cares for others and strives to do the right thing. He serves as a leader by representing his class as the Student Council representative, and also participates in the running club and LEGO club. Adan always puts forth his best effort in the classroom, approaching all tasks with a growth mindset. He leads by example and is an excellent role model for his peers. Tabernacle Elementary School is proud to recognize Adan Rivera as our STAR³ Student for May.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Micah McNeil - 10th Grade

Micah McNeil has worked hard this school year and has overcome challenges. Micah has become a student leader within our Cultural Arts department, having sung in the talent show, showcased his art in class, and led lessons for other students. Micah developed a spray paint technique used to produce decorations for the talent show. He is a kind, compassionate student who cares about those around him. Micah strives for excellence while pursuing his passions, achieves high marks in all of his classes, and is highly trusted by his teachers. He always does his best despite distractions, and deserves to be recognized for his hard work and dedication to being a great student. Congratulations to Micah McNeil, Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve's STAR³ Student for May.
