2:00	Theme Intro: Amy Bronner This morning we start a brand-new sermon series, entitled, "Joy in January." Let's be honest. Sometimes it's hard to find joy in January, isn't it? The holidays are over; the tree and decorations have been taken down; the credit card bills start coming; we have to go back to work in the cold, snowy weather; and to top it off, we still are dealing with the pandemic, waiting for a vaccine. So, where's the joy? The Apostle Paul was able to find joy in spite of all the struggles and problems he faced in his ministry. Today we're going to examine some lessons we can learn from St. Paul as we learn more and more that our God works joy despite struggle because there is no one like our God. What is this love that won't relent
That's calling out with heaven's breath
Who is reaching wide to save our souls
Only You

What is this grace that makes no sense
That we could never recompense
Who gives us all a second chance
Only You, only You, only You

There is no one like our God
There is no one like our God
There is no other God who can save
There is no one like our God

Who hung the stars upon the night
And showed the sun how bright to shine
Who shaped the world within His hands
Only You

Who set the sky upon the hills
And told the waters to be still
Who spoke to form the universe
Only You, only You, only You

There is no one like our God
There is no one like our God
There is no other God who can save
There is no one like our God

There is no one like our God
There is no one like our God
There is no other God who can save
There is no one like our God

No height or depth can stand between us
No pow'r on earth or all creation
No life or death can separate us from Your love

No height or depth can stand between us
No pow'r on earth or all creation
No life or death can separate us from Your love

There is no one like our God
There is no one like our God
There is no other God who can save

There is no one like our God
There is no one like our God
There is no other God who can save
There is no one like our God

I searched the world, but it couldn't fill me
Man's empty praise and treasures that fade
Are never enough
Then You came along and put me back together
And every desire is now satisfied here in Your love

Oh there's nothing better than You
There's nothing better than You
Lord there's nothing
Nothing is better than You

Now I'm not afraid to show You my weakness
My failures and flaws, Lord You've seen them all
And You still call me friend

'Cause the God of the mountain
Is the God of the valley, there's not a place
Your mercy and grace won't find me again

Oh there's nothing better than You
There's nothing better than You
Lord there's nothing
Nothing is better than You

You turn mourning to dancing
You give beauty for ashes
You turn shame into glory
You're the only one who can

You turn graves into gardens
You turn bones into armies
You turn seas into highways
You're the only One Who can

Oh there's nothing better than You
There's nothing better than You
Lord there's nothing
Nothing is better than You

Oh there's nothing better than You
There's nothing better than You
Lord there's nothing
Nothing is better than You

You turn graves into gardens
You turn bones into armies
You turn seas into highways
You're the only One Who can
You're the only One Who can
You're the only One Who can

1:00 Joy in January Prayer (Closes Children's Message)

Heidi: (Introduction of Joy in January Idea) Our day school teachers were asked before the break to provide stories of where some of our students are experiencing joy as they live with Jesus right now as an inspiration to all of us to find Joy in Jesus in the every day moments. Today's moment of joy in Jesus comes from our Kindergarten classroom, one of our students has written, "When my imagination has scary thoughts I can have joy because Jesus pushes the bad thoughts away." Yes, he does little one.

Prayer of Children's Message Speaker: Savior Jesus, your work to love and care for us from the cross has filled our hearts with so much joy that there is no more room for scary thoughts. We thank you for all that you have done to love us so much. You have given us a heart full of joy. Amen.

Kids Connection students you are now excused to go to class with your teachers.

2:00 Reading - Philippians 1:1-11

Philippians 1:1-11

Pastor: Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy,

Men: 5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.

Pastor: 6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

Women: 7 It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

Pastor: 8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. 9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

15:00 Message - Joy in January: Joy in Fellowship

1. Partnerships with others is important, because it's rarely a one man or one woman show.
2. Fostering partnerships and creating fellowship are two main areas that are very important for Divine Redeemer's mission and ministry.
3. Connecting your spiritual gifts with opportunities for service, can bring joy to a Christian as he or she serves Christ by serving others.
4. Involving members in the life of a congregation and school can be challenging at times.
5. Focusing on Christ's payment for our sin, and His promise of the Holy Spirit's power reminds us that we are not alone in our tasks of witness and service.
6. We are blessed to have a dedicated individual as our "Director of Connections," who serves Jesus and assists all of us in our Christian callings.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

P: There is a difference between happiness and joy. Happiness is fleeting. We spend a lot of time pursuing happiness. Joy is a gift from Jesus that is always available to you as you experience Jesus as His Word is spoken in this community. As you are living your life today, contemplate the difference between happiness and joy. When you are experiencing joy this week, take a moment to go on Divine Redeemer's Facebook page and right what Jesus is doing in your life through Christian fellowship that brings you Joy in January. But for now... Go in joy and
