National Technical Honor Society (NTHS)

The National Technical Honor Society (NTHS) is in the process of selecting students to become members of its elite 2018-19 organization. Instructors are currently in the process of recommending students for membership in the NTHS. In order to qualify as a potential candidate, students must:

- Be a 2nd year GTC student
- Be a member of your program area student leadership organization
- Possess positive character and leadership qualities
- Have a minimum grade of a 90 at the GTC
- Have a minimum GPA of 3.0 at his/her base school.

The induction ceremony will be held at GTC on Friday, February 22, 2019.

Welcome New Employees

Ms. Jermeka Smith, a naïve of Greenville, MS, a graduate of Greenville High School and a product of Greenville Technical Center. She developed an interest in Culinary Arts as a first year student here at the Greenville Technical Center. After completing the two-year program, she continued her interest for Culinary Arts by attending Mississippi University for Women, where she earned a Bachelor's of Science in Culinary Arts with an emphasis in Food Art. After Culinary school, Ms. Smith become a kitchen intern at Camp Kippewa (all girls overnight) in Monmouth, ME, soon becoming head chef of the camp. She has also worked as a kitchen manager, and a dietary manager.

Mrs. Tijuana Harris is an esteemed graduate of Tougaloo College where she obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Economics/Accounting. She has over 14 years of industry experience as Human Resource Manager. Mrs. Harris is married to Johnathan Harris and they both have 3 adorable children.

Mr. John Johnson is our new Collision Repair Technician instructor. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Greenville Technical Center's Collision Repair Class of 79. He has been in education for 11 years. He has been married for 33 years and has 3 lovely children. Mr. Johnson loves to refinish vehicles, gardening and family time.

Student of the Month

The Greenville Technical Center instructors take pride in selecting one student for their program who is enthusiastic, motivated and/or most improved student for the month. This student's picture will be placed in the GTC foyer, and could be in the GTC's newsletter. In addition, this student will receive a certificate and other good things. Maybe it will be you!
