

Thursday April 2nd Language Lesson

On my teacher's page on the school website, go to links and click on the video for Commas in a Series and watch the video again. When you are done watching the video, complete the provided worksheets. You may print them out or use a piece of notebook paper to write your answers.

Worksheet 1:

Read the sentences. Place commas where they need to go in the sentences. If you are using a separate sheet, rewrite the sentences.

Worksheet 2:

Day 3: Rewrite the sentences fixing the comma errors. Make sure to place the commas in the correct spot.

Day 4: Read the sentences. If the commas are in the correct place, write correct. If they are wrong, rewrite the sentences correcting the mistakes.

USING COMMAS

Name: _____ Date: 4/02/20

Directions: Add commas to the sentences.

1. Are you wearing the violet colored dress the black pant suit or the skirt with the ruffles?
2. Robert E Lee William T Sherman Ulysses S Grant and Jefferson Davis were famous Civil War figures.
3. You can fold the laundry wash the car sweep the floors or organize the food in the pantry.
4. Some of the types of dogs available for sale are Chihuahuas Labradors Poodles German Shepherds and Golden Retrievers.
5. Finding Nemo The Little Mermaid Toy Story and Shrek are some of my favorite movies.
6. This weekend we are buying new shoes going to see a movie eating at my favorite restaurant and picking out a new phone for my birthday.

Day 3

The following sentences have comma errors. Determine the error, rewrite the sentence correctly, and then explain your answer.

1. We ate burgers, with cheese, crispy fries, and brownies for dessert.
2. Do you want to paint a picture, watch cartoons read a book, or go outside and play?
3. Some books that I have read recently are Hatchet, by Gary Paulson, Sideway Stories, by Louis Sachar, Charlotte's Web, by E.B. White, and Sophia's War by Avi.

Day 4

Determine if each sentence is using commas correctly. If it is not correct, make the corrections. If it is correct, write how you know it is correct.

1. Read all of the directions first, provide evidence for your answers, check your answers twice, and make sure you bubble the correct letter.
2. George, Washington, John, Adams, and Thomas, Jefferson were the first three presidents.
3. Would you prefer to have chocolate cake, strawberry cake cherry cheesecake, apple pie, or brownies?
4. I feel like all I ever do is go to school come home do my homework, watch television, and go to bed.
5. Do you like reading alone, reading with a partner, being read to by a person, or listening to someone read on tape?