

Mrs. Huffman's third grade students have had the opportunity to be pen pals with Mr. Hamrick's Business Law class at Reagan High School, located in Pfafftown, NC. The students have exchanged letters back and forth since the beginning of the year. This week they had the wonderful opportunity to Skype with them so that they could finally "meet" their pen pals face to face. They were so excited.