Seniors Win Fine Art Society Scholarships

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Two Houston County School District seniors won art scholarships from the Fine Art Society of Middle Georgia. Kailee Wang, Houston County High, won first place and a $1,000 scholarship. Emma Hughes, Veterans High, won second place and a $500 scholarship.

The annual student art show was held at the Fine Art Society of Middle Georgia in Warner Robins, Mar. 12-19, 2021. Typically, the Fine Art Society hosts a show open to all Houston County students. Due to COVID-related precautions, the 2021 contest was only open to seniors who plan to attend college next fall as an art major. The society received entries from six talented artists.

Olethia Thomas, the district's Fine Arts Coordinator, commented, "We have very talented students in our Fine Arts Program and it's heartwarming to see them recognized for their hard work and creativity. Their potential is limitless. Many thanks to the Fine Art Society members for their continued support of our high school seniors. Their generosity truly makes a difference."

Katherine Wyatt serves as the Visual Arts Teacher for Houston County High, and Dr. Doug Rizer serves as principal. Wyatt may be reached at 478-988-6340 or Katherine.Wyatt@hcbe.net.

Sarah Harlow is the Visual Arts Teacher for Veterans High, and Dr. Amy Barbour serves as principal. Harlow may be reached at 478-218-7537 or Sarah.Harlow@hcbe.net.
