

WAO Education Foundation

RCCAP OF OCTOBER 21st MEETING

The WAO Public School Education Foundation met October 21st at the WAOHS Library at 5:30. Members present were Pam Jubie, Dewey Swanson, Russell Miller, Sally Roller, Tim Finseth, Carol Bowman, Ellen Strickler, and Carol Anderson, Carol Sedgeman, Kari Miska, WAO speech and language teacher was present. Ed Rosendahl were absent.

Some highlights from the meeting are:

The High Heels Quilt is on display at Bremer Bank. Tickets will be sold at the Wellness Fair on November 5th, at the Jaycees Holiday Open House on November 7th

Industrial Tech Match-$2500 has come in from donations. Nate has ordered the auto lift.

We were awarded $750 from the Warren Area Community Fund Grant for auditorium lighting.

Carol Bowman is covering the office position for now.

We received a $2500 gift form the estate of alumnus Ida Fischer Meyer that was designated for scholarships.

We will participate in the Wellness Fair this year on 11-5.

An American Education Week luncheon will be served on Tuesday, 11-17 for all school personnel.

Permission was given for the WACF to put an article in the fall Connections.

The Foundation will fund the 2015 spelling bee.

The Merrill & Mildred Stroble Scholarships will be given in $2016 to students going into education.

The Madga Spilde Scholarship will cease after the 2015 recipient is paid in January.

All needs that were submitted were approved.

Kari Miska presented information about the WAO Elementary Playground Project.

Tim Finseth resigned from the board of directors.

The November meeting will be on the 18th at the WAOHS Library at 5:30