Kings Chapel Elementary Reading Day March 3

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Kings Chapel Elementary School will host its annual Guest Reading Day on March 3, 2020. This all-day, school-wide event promotes reading and honors Dr. Seuss' birthday. Special guests from the news media, city, county, and Houston County School District's central office will visit classrooms throughout the day to read books to the children.

“This event is an exciting day for our school,” said Principal William Ray. “It was a big success last year, and we know this year will be even better. Kings Chapel is honored to have the participation of the community members and district administration. The children love this event, as do our faculty and staff.”

Theodor Seuss Geisel, known best by his pen name “Dr. Seuss,” authored many beloved children's books. Since the 1990s, a day of reading has been celebrated across the U.S. on or near his birthday, March 2.

Kings Chapel Elementary is located at 460 Arena Road in Perry. Principal Ray may be reached at William.Ray@hcbe.net or 478-988-6273.
