Good Morning Parents,

As we all prepare for the packet exchange this afternoon, here are a few requests:

Please send back: DEAR books you have, Different books are coming in today's packet.

Treasured Verses

Finished papers

Unfinished papers - We teachers want you to start fresh Monday morning.

Keep: Textbooks, workbooks, your Wordly Wise book, math spirals

Another idea for you: Norah Siebert wanted to watch videos that went with the Scholastic magazines that you all have enjoyed reading. Her mom and Mrs. Krueger helped me figure out how students can visit this website. Here are the steps:

1. go to sn2.scholastic.com
2. click on: log in
3. click on: I am a student
4. classroom password: bestteam8168

Scholastic has worked to make interesting things available for this Stay At Home time.

Please know that Mrs. Fast and I are always willing to help you with any assignments that you are wondering about.

It's been fun seeing posts of you enjoying making volcanoes in the sand!

Blessings to all of you,

Mrs. Olson
