

College Application Week

October 19-23

College Application season is here!!! During the week of October 19- 23rd several colleges in the state will be waiving their college application fee. This will be a great time to start applying to college. Please take advantage of this week and complete at least two college applications. Here is a list of colleges that will be doing virtual visits with the EDGE during College Application Week. Students who attend a session with at least four schools, will have the opportunity to receive bonus points toward a major assignment in the class of their choosing. Please make sure you register for the events you plan to attend.
