The HCBOE coin features the system's logo, mission and vision and is modeled after military challenge coins, a military tradition used to prove membership when challenged and to enhance morale. The Board of Education adopted this tradition and the Superintendent selectively awards the coin.

Faculty and staff who have served 25, 20, 15, 10 or 5 years in the school district have been honored by their school or department. The Eric P. Staples building is located at 1100 Main Street in Perry.
