“STAR<sup>3</sup> Students” for December 2019

Archdale Elementary School - Jacob Gannaway - 5th Grade

Jacob Gannaway always has the most positive demeanor about everything that he does. He is a role model to all of his peers and helps them feel welcome. Jacob participates in many extracurricular clubs and is a leader both inside and outside the classroom. We are proud of Jacob's accomplishments during his time at Archdale Elementary School and are excited to see what his future holds. Congratulations to Jacob Gannaway, Archdale Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Archdale-Trinity Middle School - Brennan Passmore - 7th Grade

It is common to find smiling faces at Archdale Trinity Middle School, but there is none brighter than Brennan Passmore's. We know Brennan will become an awesome adult, because of how he faces challenges every day. He faces them with a smile on his face and interacts with others in a positive way. Brennan has been a shining light in the classroom and has stepped up as a support and role model for other students, without needing any guidance in how to interact with them. Brennan is a natural. He is a true, blue Bulldog and makes us all proud as he continues every day to "Be More Dog." Congratulations, Brennan Passmore, Archdale-Trinity Middle School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Braxton Craven School - Kayden LaPradd - 6th grade

Kayden LaPradd exemplifies the Braxton Craven motto of "Be More Dog," which means going above and beyond what is expected. Kayden goes above and beyond what is expected in various ways. She is a positive role model for her peers, and her drive and determination to do well academically are evident in her attaining "A" honor roll for the first nine weeks. No matter what hardships Kayden faces, she always rises to the occasion with a positive approach and a smile on her face. Congratulations to Kayden LaPradd, Braxton Craven School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Hopewell Elementary School - Estiven Baquedano-Stroupe - 3rd Grade

Estiven Baquedano-Stroupe is kind, cooperative, and considerate. He is quick to compliment and support his classmates and eager to help others. Estiven is also responsible and hardworking, and has made great academic progress this year. He faces obstacles and challenges with perseverance and a positive attitude. Estiven Baquedano-Stroupe's love of learning is infectious, and Hopewell Elementary School is proud to select him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

John Lawrence Elementary School - Kayla Morgan - 5th Grade

Kayla Morgan is very respectful and has a wonderful demeanor. She is quiet when she works, helps others in need, and is polite to adults and her peers. Kayla is also very hard-working, strives to do her very best, and settles for nothing less. We are very proud of Kayla, and believe she is the perfect example of a star student and is deserving of this award. Congratulations, Kayla Morgan, John Lawrence Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

New Market Elementary School - Monte Wade - 2nd Grade

Monte Wade is already an inspiration to everyone who gets to know him. Despite any struggles Monte may face, he continues to amaze his teacher with his perseverance and positive outlook. Monte works hard each and every day, and has made progress in all academic areas since the beginning of the school year. He is a friend to everyone, and always is willing to help out in the classroom, regardless of what is asked of him. We are excited to see what the future holds for this fantastic young student. Congratulations to our Bobcat, Monte Wade, on being selected New Market Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Randolph Early College High School - Leslie Aleman - 10th grade

Leslie Aleman is a fabulous young student who makes it her mission to make others smile. She is a member of our Action, Inspire, and Motivate (AIM) Club, and she uplifts others and encourages them to see the best in any situation. Leslie has a positive outlook, not only towards life, but to her academics as well. Leslie's nominating teacher says, "Leslie is one of the hardest working students I have ever taught. Her dedication to her coursework and her intent on doing well in all situations is commendable." After a setback caused Leslie to miss school earlier this semester, Leslie returned with a focus on making up all her missed assignments, and has been successful in getting caught up. Her persistence and determination will carry her to greatness in her future endeavors. Leslie Aleman is a joy to have at our school and Randolph Early College High School is proud to call her our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Trindale Elementary School - Davis Allman - 4th Grade

Despite setbacks, Davis Allman's positive outlook never wavers. He faces each new challenge with a smile. Davis takes his responsibility as an afternoon safety patrol seriously and participates, no matter what type of day he is having. Davis has shown significant growth over the last four years at "the dale," and he continues to amaze us with his capabilities. The staff members at "the dale" are proud of all the progress Davis Allman has made, and we congratulate him for being selected Trindale Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Trinity Elementary School - Bryson Inman - 2nd Grade

Bryson Inman is a friend to all the students he encounters each day at school. He is a leader in his classroom, always is willing to help others, and even wants to help his teachers clean up. Bryson works hard every day to "Think, Explore, and Succeed." Trinity Elementary School is proud to recognize Bryson Inman as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.

Trinity High School - Maggie Anthony - 12th grade

Maggie Anthony is one of the most dedicated, hard-working, and motivated young students at Trinity High School. Maggie spends her extra time in the classroom serving as the leader of group projects and helping those around her. She utilizes practice time during her sports - tennis and soccer - to help novice players learn techniques and drills. Additionally, Maggie serves as the Student Council secretary/treasurer and is deeply rooted in service to Trinity High School and the surrounding Archdale-Trinity area. Congratulations, Maggie Anthony, the STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for Trinity High School for December.

Wheatmore High School - Yoni Mora Gonzalez - 11th grade

Yoni Mora Gonzalez exemplifies Wheatmore High School's motto of "Honor, Pride, and Valor." Yoni carries a rigorous course load and has maintained a 4.34 grade point average. He is the captain of the soccer team and was the team's co-Most Valuable Player this season. His leadership abilities and work ethic have made him one of the best athletes ever to play at Wheatmore. Out of a total of 1,360 game minutes this season, Yoni played every minute except for one. He is a true Warrior, and the respect he displays during the game towards his coaches, teammates, and opponents is unmatched. Yoni is a quiet leader - when he speaks, others listen, and he leads by example. Wheatmore High School is proud and excited to announce Yoni Mora Gonzalez as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for December.
