

LOVE OF READING WEEK

Reading Round UP!

Monday

General Assembly- "Reader Round Up" is our theme for the week. Sheriff Seymour Books and Deputy I. Rita Lot will be there to get the week started off with a HOOP-and-HOLLAR.

Reader's Theater- Reader's theater "Slim and Ms. Prim" will be presented by EAC theater students in the cafeteria.

1st Grade Cowboy Poet Bunny Dryden is a member of the Cowboy Poet Society. She will share stories and the history of being a cowboy and help the first graders write a cowboy poem of their own.

Tuesday

2nd Grade Field Trip to Safford Public Library will be Tues.-Thurs.

Reading Around the Corral- Thatcher Middle School National Honor Students will be visiting in the activity room to model good reading for our students.

Wednesday

Cowboy Poetry Day/Title 1 teachers will be visiting the grade levels they are assigned to present a short poetry lesson or activity.

Guest Cowpoke Reader Day- This day is set aside to read all day. Parents and guest readers will be invited by teachers to come and read to students.

PJs can be worn on this day. It is at the teachers discretion.**

Thursday

9:40 Parade Your Pony- Our students will dress up in the cowboy items they made throughout the week and we will have a pony parade lead by Sheriff Seymour Books and Deputy I. Rita Lot. We will parade around the North side of the school. Parents can view from their cars.

Reading Round UP- We will meet on the playground after the parade. We will have a guest cowboy. Who will show us how to take care of a horse. Following this event we will discover if our reading was enough for our posse to catch those bandits.

Other Activities

Art Project- each day your student will work on a piece of their cowboy attire so they can cowboy up for the "Pony Parade".

Stories for the Trails- teachers have been asked to be videoed so students can view other teachers reading a story throughout the week.

Campfire Songs- The music teacher has been teaching students songs for the campfire. We will sing them as often as we can.
