

Quick Reference Guide

Description...

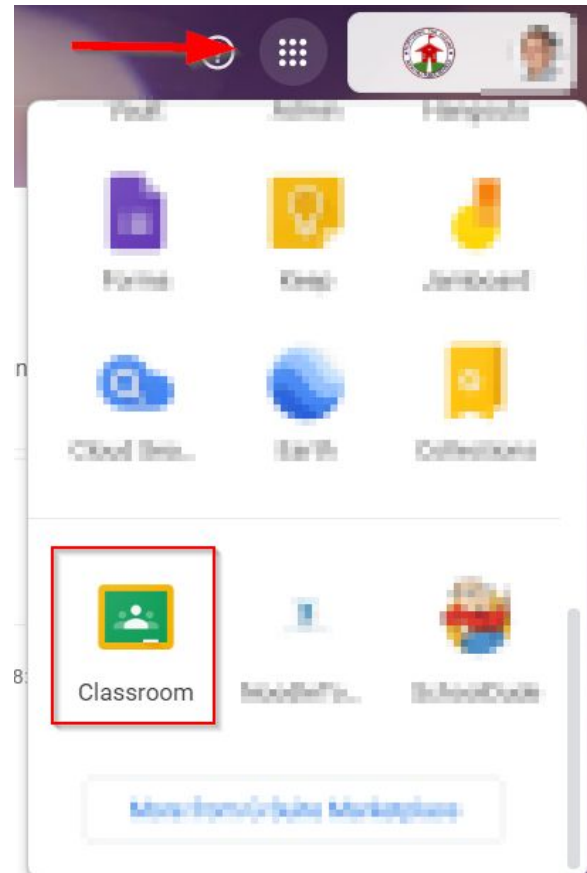

Google Classroom is a virtual education space where teachers and students can interact. This space allows for teachers to rapidly notify students about course related information, assign coursework and provide feedback.

URL...

<https://classroom.google.com/h>

General Information...

Students can access their classrooms by using the link provided or going to their apps panel from their email and choosing classroom as shown below.

From the main webpage, students will click the plus near their apps panel and choose join class. Then they will enter in the class code provided from their classroom teacher.

