Story Plot Graph

Directions: List the events of the story in the correct boxes.

The diagram is a story plot graph. It features a thick black curve that starts at the bottom left, rises to a peak, and then falls to the bottom right. The curve is divided into five sections by vertical lines. Each section is enclosed in a rectangular box. The boxes are labeled as follows:

- Introduction: The first box on the left, at the bottom left of the curve.
- Rising Action: The second box, above the Introduction box, where the curve is rising.
- Climax: The third box, at the peak of the curve.
- Falling Action: The fourth box, above the Denouement box, where the curve is falling.
- Denouement: The fifth box on the right, at the bottom right of the curve.
