Comments by the Superintendent

On 6/17/14, the superintendent attended the “High School Leadership Academy” luncheon at Randolph Community College. He had the opportunity to meet several rising 9th graders from different parts of the county. Dr. Gainey expressed his thanks to Dr. Bob Shackleford, President of Randolph Community College for the invitation.

On 7/7/14, he visited the “Read to Achieve” summers camps at Franklinville Elementary and Southmont Elementary. The superintendent commended the principals at both schools, Sharon Wallace and Penny Baber, for their hard work to make these camps a success. Dr. Gainey expressed his thanks to the teachers, child nutrition staff members, and bus drivers who worked very hard to make these camps a success.

On 7/8/14, Dr. Gainey visited the “Read to Achieve” summer camps at Trinity Elementary and Randleman Elementary. He thanked Kim Bowie and Laurie Sypole, the principals at both schools for their hard work. He also thanked the teachers, staff members, child nutrition staff, and bus drivers for their hard work.

The superintendent shared that our school system is involved in a math grant with several surrounding school systems. Meredith College and UNCG also are associated with this grant. The purpose of this grant is to provide staff development for high school teachers. This math grant was previously discussed at the September 2013 Board of Education meeting.

Upon conclusion, Dr. Gainey reviewed data regarding the budget as follows: In 1970, 52% of the state’s budget was reserved for PreK-12 education. Today, 38% of the state’s budget is reserved for PreK-12 public education. If the same percentage was reserved for public education today as in 1970, $3.02 billion more would be allotted for PreK-12 public education. The superintendent shared the following: 1) In 1984-1985, $1.89 billion was allotted for public schools in NC – 43.7% of the state’s budget 2) In 1994-1995, $4.08 billion was allotted, this was 42% of the state’s budget 3) In 2004-2005, $6.52 billion was allotted, this was 41.1% of the state’s budget 4) 2013-2014, $7.9 billion was allotted for public schools, this was 37% of the state’s budget. The same level of funding today as in the mid-1980’s would give public schools in North Carolina an additional $1 billion dollars.

Following the superintendent’s comments, he welcomed Geri Brower from Randolph Guide and Kathi Keys from The Courier-Tribune.

Information Items

Curriculum and Instruction

1. Update on “Read to Achieve” third grade summer reading camp

Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction, Catherine Berry shared that the Summer Reading Camps for third grade students in the Randolph County School System were held June 23 – July 10, 2014 at Franklinville, Randleman, Southmont, and Trinity Elementary Schools. Initially, 199 students were enrolled in the summer reading camps, with two students being added after the camps were in session, for a total of 201 students. Eighteen teachers and four site administrators were hired to staff the Summer Reading Camp sites.

On June 24, 2014, thirty-nine additional students identified for specialized services in reading through the Exceptional Children’s (EC) program qualified for a Good Cause Exemption from the third grade reading requirements as a result of changes in the Read to Achieve law. The Good Cause Exemption as defined in G.S. 115C-83.7(b) Section 5(2) is limited to: Students with disabilities, as defined in G.S. 115C-106.3(1), and whose individualized education program indicates (i) the use of the NCEXTEND1 alternative assessment, (ii) at least a two school year delay in educational performance, or (iii) receipt of intensive reading interventions for at least two school years. The majority of the students who qualified for a Good Cause Exemption as an EC student after enrolling in a Summer Reading Camp continued to attend the camp for the remainder of the program.

The Randolph County School System Child Nutrition Department provided free breakfast and lunch to all students who attended a Summer Reading Camp with the Seamless Summer Option through the National School Lunch Program. Additionally, free transportation to and from Summer Reading Camp sites was offered to all students and was provided to all students whose parents requested it for their child.

The superintendent shared this was a great piece of legislation and good for the kids. He thanked Dr. Graves for her hard work. Dr. Berry also thanked Dr. Graves and the leadership team for the many times they stopped their priorities to assist in the planning process for the summer camps.

2. 2014-2015 North Carolina Title II Statement of Assurances

The Title II Statement of Assurances was presented to the Board as an informational item. The Randolph County School System has applied for Title II funds for the 2014-2015 school year. Action Items

Operations

1. Recommendation on the release of students from the Randolph County School System to other public school systems in North Carolina

Marty Trotter, Assistant Superintendent for Operations stated in order to monitor the school system's budget for the 2014-2015 school year; the administration recommends that consideration of the "release" of Randolph County School System students to other public school systems in North Carolina for the 2014-2015 school year ends effective 7/21/14. The only exception to this recommendation would be to permit the "release" of a Randolph County School System student to another public school system in North Carolina in which his/her parent is an employee. This exception is one of the nine (9) reasons identified in Board Policy 4125 for which the superintendent "may release" a student to another public school system in North Carolina. Again, this recommendation is based on the need to monitor budget issues and resources in our school system for the 2014-2015 school year.

After discussion, Gary Cook made a motion to approve the recommendation as presented. Tommy McDonald seconded the motion and the motion passed unanimously.

Closed Session

Matthew Lambeth moved that the Randolph County Board of Education enters into closed session to preserve the attorney-client privilege and to discuss confidential personnel matters protected by state law as provided in North Carolina General Statute §143-318.11. The motion was seconded by Tracy Boyles and the motion passed unanimously.
