Title IX Sexual HarassmentINTRODUCTION AND SCOPE

A United States Department of Education regulation published on May 19, 2020 defines sexual harassment for purposes of Title IX (sometimes referred to in policy and procedure as "Title IX Sexual Harassment"). In addition to numerous other matters, the regulation sets forth grievance procedure requirements that apply (including the initiation of a "formal complaint") before there is a determination that a student is responsible for Title IX Sexual Harassment. The applicable definition of sexual harassment describes serious sexual misconduct. If the alleged actions that are the subject of a formal complaint do not descend to the level of conduct described in the definition of Title IX Sexual Harassment; do not take place in a "program or activity" of the school District within the meaning of Title IX; or do not take place in the United States, the formal complaint must be dismissed.

Such a dismissal does not mean that the alleged offending party cannot be the subject of investigation or discipline on grounds other than "Title IX Sexual Harassment" as addressed in Board policy or law, including conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct that does fall within the definition of "Title IX Sexual Harassment."¹

PROHIBITION

Title IX Sexual Harassment in educational programs or activities of the District is prohibited.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURETitle IX Coordinator (TIXC)

The TIXC is the individual or individuals designated and authorized to coordinate District Title IX programs. The TIXC is expected to engage in activities intended to provide a fair and neutral process for all parties, including implementation of supportive measures and remedies where appropriate. The District may use co-coordinators and/or deputy coordinators.

¹"stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30). For purposes of this definition, "sexual assault" means an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting system. A sex offense is an act directed against another person, without the consent of the second person, including instances where the second person is incapable of giving consent.³

Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy

03.1621 / 03.2621 / 09.428111

SEGREGATION OF FUNCTIONS / CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The TIXC, investigator, decisionmaker(s), and any informal resolution facilitator shall not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual complainant or respondent. These individuals are to serve impartially without prejudgment of the facts at issue. The investigative, initial decision-making, appellate decision-making, and resolution functions must be performed by different trained individuals, who may be District employees or contractors.

PROHIBITION

Title IX Sexual Harassment in educational programs or activities of the District is prohibited.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The District shall provide a Title IX Sexual Harassment grievance procedure that treats complainants and respondents equitably as required by Federal Regulation.²

DEFINITIONS

Title IX Sexual Harassment

"Title IX Sexual Harassment" means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- 1) An employee of the District conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the District on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (i.e., quid pro quo sexual harassment);
- 2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the District's education program or activity;
- 3) "Sexual assault" as defined in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v), "dating violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), "domestic violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or "stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30). For purposes of this definition, "sexual assault" means an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting system. A sex offense is an act directed against another person, without the consent of the second person, including instances where the second person is incapable of giving consent.³

Title IX Rule § 106.30(a)

Complainant

An individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment

Respondent

An individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment

- ❖ Student reports to guidance counselor that she is being sexually harassed by another student.
- ❖ Teacher witnesses another teacher and student kissing in the other teacher's classroom and tells the Principal.
- ❖ Mother of student under 18 reports to the Title IX Coordinator that her son is being sexually harassed by other students on the bus.
- ❖ After reporting sexual harassment to the Title IX Coordinator, student decides she does not want her complaint investigated, and the Title IX Coordinator moves forward with a sexual harassment investigation.

Identifying the Complainant

Examples to Consider

Complainant and Respondent

Applies to parties in both reports and formal complaints of sexual harassment

Complainant: A person who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment

NOT third party reporter

NOT Title IX Coordinator who “signs” complaint

Respondent: A person who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment

Actual Knowledge Triggers District's Duty to Respond

Examples to Consider

One evening after school, the Title IX Coordinator drives to the high school to retrieve an item he had left there earlier in the day. As he is exiting the building, he sees a teacher and student in the teacher's car kissing.

Actual Knowledge?

- What if the person who sees the conduct is the Superintendent?
- A teacher?
- The basketball coach who is not otherwise employed by the District?
- What if the complaint is anonymous and is sent to the Superintendent through the mail?

Definition

Title IX Rule § 106.30(a)

Actual Knowledge

Notice of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment to:

- A recipient's Title IX Coordinator
- Any official of the recipient who has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the recipient; or
- To any employee of an elementary and secondary school.

Standard not met when the only official with actual knowledge is the respondent.

Title IX Sexual HarassmentINTRODUCTION AND SCOPE

A United States Department of Education regulation published on May 19, 2020 defines sexual harassment for purposes of Title IX (sometimes referred to in policy and procedure as "Title IX Sexual Harassment"). In addition to numerous other matters, the regulation sets forth grievance procedure requirements that apply (including the initiation of a "formal complaint") before there is a determination that a student is responsible for Title IX Sexual Harassment. The applicable definition of sexual harassment describes serious sexual misconduct. If the alleged actions that are the subject of a formal complaint do not descend to the level of conduct described in the definition of Title IX Sexual Harassment; do not take place in a "program or activity" of the school District within the meaning of Title IX; or do not take place in the United States, the formal complaint must be dismissed.

Such a dismissal does not mean that the alleged offending party cannot be the subject of investigation or discipline on grounds other than "Title IX Sexual Harassment" as addressed in Board policy or law, including conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct that does fall within the definition of "Title IX Sexual Harassment."¹

Title IX Sexual Harassment in educational programs or activities of the District is prohibited.

EMPLOYEES SHALL REPORT

Employees who believe or have been made aware that they or any other employee, student, or visitor has been subject to Title IX Sexual Harassment shall report it to the TIXC. Failure to make such a report shall be grounds for discipline up to and including termination. If the knowledge of the reporting party gives rise to reasonable cause to believe that the reported conduct constitutes child abuse Policy 09.227 or a reportable criminal offense Policy 09.2211, notification of state officials shall be made as required by law.⁶

Harassment vs. Discrimination vs. Bullying vs. Discipline

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Title IX Rule
§ 106.30(a)

- The Rule's definition of sexual harassment has three components.

“Sexual harassment” means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:”

- 1) Quid pro quo harassment
- 2) Harassment pursuant to the Supreme Court's Davis v. Monroe Co. Bd. of Ed. opinion
- 3) Crimes under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and the Clery Act

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Quid Pro Quo

- An employee conditions something of value for a sexual favor

Davis
Standard

- Conduct that is so severe, pervasive, AND objectively offensive that denies equal access

Clery and
VAWA
Crimes

- Sexual Assault, Stalking, Dating and Domestic Violence

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Scenario to Ponder

Female student at the middle school “butt slaps” a male student.

Is this behavior sexual harassment under Title IX that warrants an investigation?

Three Components of Sexual Harassment Definition

- 1) An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct;
- 2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient's education program or activity; or
- 3) "Sexual assault" as defined in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v), "dating violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), "domestic violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or "stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30).

Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment

- Applies only to an employee respondent
- Involves an abuse of authority over another employee or student
- Does not require a showing of severity, pervasiveness or offensiveness
- May involve implied conduct (need not be explicit)

Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment

Examples to Consider

- The custodial supervisor tells a night custodian he will consider her for a day shift position if she will go to dinner with him.
- Susie, the smartest girl in 11th grade, tells John she will write his term paper for him if he will date her.
- The Finance Officer asks the payroll clerk to give him a shoulder massage and further comments that if she “plays her cards right,” she can expect to have extended days added to her contract.
- John’s hours were reduced after he refused the sexual advances of his supervisor.

Sexual Harassment – Davis Standard

- Evaluated under a “reasonable person” standard that takes into consideration a constellation of facts, including ages of the parties involved, disability status, and positions of authority of the involved parties
- Can involve verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct
- Must be severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive
 - Involves the denial of equal access to education as compared to access of person not subjected to sexual harassment

Words from OCR....

- Only serious situations will be actionable
- Not every instance of subjectively unwelcome conduct meets the sexual harassment definition under Davis standard
- Behavior that does not meet the definition of sexual harassment may still be addressed under other district policies and procedures

Denial of Equal Access

- Total exclusion of access not required
- Denial is measured against the access of a person who has not been subjected to sexual harassment
- Examples
 - 3rd grader who starts bedwetting or crying at night
 - High school wrestler who quits team but carries on with other school activities
 - Skipping class to avoid harasser
 - Decline in student's grade point average
 - Difficulty concentrating in class

Intake or referral, by itself, does not constitute legal assistance.

(20) Personally identifying information or personal information
The term “personally identifying information” or “personal information” means individually identifying information for or about

Sexual Harassment: Clery/VAWA Crimes

Definition of Stalking – 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30)

Sexual Assault

- Includes any sexual act directed against another person without their consent
 - Rape
 - Sodomy
 - Sexual assault with an object
 - Fondling (touching private body parts without consent for the purpose of sexual gratification)
 - Incest
 - Statutory rape

- ❖ The Rules do not provide a definition of consent.
- ❖ Schools must adopt a definition of consent.

Consent

Definition of Consent

Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy

03.1621 / 03.2621 /
09.428111

“Consent means a voluntary expression of willingness, permission, or agreement to engage in sexual activity throughout a sexual encounter. Consent cannot be granted by an individual: who is less than the statutory age of consent under Kentucky criminal law, has a mental or physical condition or incapacity that prevents the giving of consent; or from whom ostensible “consent” is extracted through threat, coercion, or forcible compulsion.”

Revisit “butt slapping” scenario by female student toward male student at the middle school

Consent

Per OCR -

“Where the touching of a person’s private body part occurs for the purpose of sexual gratification, that offense warrants inclusion as sexual assault.”

Consent

Formal Complaint

A document filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against a respondent and requesting that the district investigate the allegation.

Formal Complaint

- A formal complaint may be filed with the Title IX Coordinator
 - In person
 - By mail
 - By electronic mail using the contact info required to be listed for the Coordinator under § 106.8(a)
 - By any additional method designated by the recipient

Formal Complaint

- At the time of the filing, a complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the education program or activity of the recipient with which the formal complaint is filed.

Formal Complaint

- Must almost always be signed by complainant
- Must allege sexual harassment against a respondent and request an investigation
- No requirement of a detailed statement of facts
- District can have actual notice of sexual harassment without a formal complaint
- Title IX Coordinator has discretion to sign formal complaint and initiate the district's grievance process when the Title IX Coordinator believes doing so is necessary to avoid being deliberately indifferent.

What if an alleged victim does not want to file a complaint?

When deciding whether to “sign” a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator should consider:

- Pattern of alleged conduct, especially by person with authority
- Involvement of violence, weapons, etc.
- Seriousness of alleged conduct
- Age of student harassed

Decision to sign a Formal Complaint, or not, reviewed for “deliberate indifference”

- Can a third party file a formal complaint for a friend?
- Can an anonymous report constitute a formal complaint?
- Can a parent file a formal complaint on behalf of their child?
- Can a complainant file a formal complaint by telephone?
- Does the complainant have to use the district's form?

Serving Impartially and Avoiding Conflicts of Interest and Bias

Impartiality is vital to the Title IX
grievance process.

- Serving impartially includes the avoidance of the following:
 - Prejudgment of the facts at issue
 - Conflicts of interest
 - Bias
- BUT what does this mean? And how do you avoid them?

Prejudgment of the Facts at Issue

- Prejudgment refers to passing judgment prematurely or without sufficient reflection or investigation
 - Example: Complainant was crying while making her report. You conclude that because she was crying, she must have been telling the truth about the Respondent's conduct.
- Neither the Complainant who reports sexual harassment nor the Respondent defending those allegations should be prejudged.
- Sex stereotypes often lead to prejudgment.
 - Example: Men cannot be sexually assaulted.
 - Example: Women complaining about sexual harassment are just jumping on the #MeToo bandwagon.

How to Avoid Prejudgment of the Facts

- Keep an open mind throughout the process.
- Wait to hear all of the facts.
- Seek out additional facts and/or witnesses if you feel you are jumping to conclusions.

How to Avoid Prejudgment of the Facts

- Consider potential responses to trauma
 - Delayed or reluctant reporting
 - Difficulty remembering details
 - Being calm and composed after an assault
- Do not assume that because there are signs of trauma, the trauma was caused by the Respondent.
- Do not assume that because there are not signs of trauma that nothing bad happened.

He's not a rapist.
He was just drunk.

If he hadn't been drunk....

But she went back to him....

She didn't even cry.

He bought her dinner.
She owed him.

He didn't even say no....

Why didn't she yell for help?

Why didn't he fight back?

Dressed like that, what did she expect?

Why didn't he run away?

She led him on....She couldn't say no.

Stories We Tell Ourselves

Conflicts of Interest

- A conflict of interest occurs when personal or private interests compromise one's judgment, decisions, or actions.
- Conflicts of interests can occur as a result of personal relationships (family, friends, faculty, civic organizations, etc.), financial investments, or other social factors.
- There are no per se conflicts of interests outlined in the Title IX regulations.
 - BUT there may exist the appearance of a conflict or a bias that prevents the investigator from serving.

- A conflict of interest that disqualifies you from the Title IX grievance process is one that prevents you from being able to impartially participate.
- Conflicts of interest can be actual, perceived, or potential.

Conflicts of Interest

Conflicts of Interest

- Actual conflict of interest - a direct conflict between your official duties and responsibilities and a competing personal interest or obligation.
 - Example: The Title IX decision maker's daughter is the Complainant.
- Perceived conflict of interest - a situation where it could reasonably be perceived that a competing interest could improperly influence the performance of your official duties and responsibilities.
 - Example: The Title IX investigator previously had relationship with a family member of the Respondent.
- Potential conflict of interest - arises where a personal interest or obligation may conflict with one's official duties and responsibilities in the future.
 - Example: The Title IX Coordinator and Complainant are scheduled to co-chair an upcoming school event.

Conflicts of Interest

- How do you determine if you have a conflict of interest? Ask yourself the following questions:
 - Would I be happy if my colleagues became aware of the conflict?
 - Would I be happy if the conflict was discussed in the media or on Facebook or Twitter?
 - If someone else was in my position, would I think he/she should be barred from participating?
 - If I were the Complainant or the Respondent, would I want someone in my position to investigate the allegations?

Bias

- A bias is a tendency, inclination, or prejudice towards or against someone.
 - Often based on stereotypes, rather than actual knowledge of an individual or a particular circumstance
 - Frequently based on a person's gender, race, or sexual orientation

Examples of Bias

- ❖ Example: When talking with Title IX Complainants, the Title IX Coordinator begins the initial interview by asking who the Respondent is and what “he” did to the Complainant (always assuming the Respondent is a male).
- ❖ Example: A Title IX Decision-maker finds the Respondent more credible than the Complainant because the Respondent speaks “perfect English” while the Complainant, who only knows English as a second language, does not.

Avoiding Bias

- Let the evidence lead to the conclusion, not the other way around.
- Maintain documentation.
 - Evaluate the source of the information, the content, and the plausibility in light of other evidence.
- Be thorough. Don't limit the investigation to either party's witnesses or evidence.

The Initial Report

What must a school district do to respond?

A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity against a person in the United States must respond promptly and in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent.

Title IX Sexual HarassmentINTRODUCTION AND SCOPE

A United States Department of Education regulation published on May 19, 2020 defines sexual harassment for purposes of Title IX (sometimes referred to in policy and procedure as "Title IX Sexual Harassment"). In addition to numerous other matters, the regulation sets forth grievance procedure requirements that apply (including the initiation of a "formal complaint") before there is a determination that a student is responsible for Title IX Sexual Harassment. The applicable definition of sexual harassment describes serious sexual misconduct. If the alleged actions that are the subject of a formal complaint do not descend to the level of conduct described in the definition of Title IX Sexual Harassment; do not take place in a "program or activity" of the school District within the meaning of Title IX; or do not take place in the United States, the formal complaint must be dismissed.

Such a dismissal does not mean that the alleged offending party cannot be the subject of investigation or discipline on grounds other than "Title IX Sexual Harassment" as addressed in Board policy or law, including conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct that does fall within the definition of "Title IX Sexual Harassment."¹

Title IX Sexual Harassment in educational programs or activities of the District is prohibited.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The District shall provide a Title IX Sexual Harassment grievance procedure that treats complainants and respondents equitably as required by Federal Regulation.²

DEFINITIONSTitle IX Sexual Harassment

"Title IX Sexual Harassment" means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- 1) An employee of the District conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the District on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (i.e., quid pro quo sexual harassment);
- 2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and

FALSE REPORTS PROHIBITED

Employees or students who intentionally make false reports related to the District's administration of this policy and the corresponding procedures, are subject to disciplinary sanctions under applicable District policy, law, or the Student Discipline Code, as applicable.

Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy

03.1621 / 03.2621 / 09.428111

Confidentiality

- The District must keep confidential the identity of the following:
 - Any individual who has made a report or complaint
 - Any complainant, respondent, or witness
 - Any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator
- Exceptions
 - Those permitted by FERPA, by law, or those needed to carry out Title IX purposes, including the conduct of any investigation, hearing or judicial proceeding

Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy

03.1621 / 03.2621 / 09.428111

Confidentiality

- Investigative evidence directly related to the allegations of a formal complaint is subject to inspection and review by the parties
 - BUT is not to be disseminated to the public
 - DOE rule commentary: In accordance with FERPA's definition of "education records," a parent of a complainant or a respondent (or eligible student) has a right to inspect and review any witness statement that is directly related to the student EVEN IF that statement contains information directly related to another student IF the information cannot be segregated or redacted without destroying its meaning.

Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy

03.1621 / 03.2621 / 09.428111

Title IX Scenario

A single teacher brings a complaint against a married administrator alleging learing, glaring, comments about short skirts, etc. There is also an underlying rumor about a physical sexual relationship. The investigation has begun with an interview of the Respondent, and the Complainant has now written an e-mail to the superintendent withdrawing her complaint.

Dismissal of Formal Complaint

- The Title IX Coordinator must dismiss a formal complaint if:
 - The conduct alleged does not meet the definition of sexual harassment; or
 - The conduct alleged did not occur within the scope of the district's educational programs and activities; or
 - The conduct did not occur in the United States

- If a formal complaint is dismissed, the Title IX Coordinator must provide written notice to the parties explaining the reasons.
- The parties can appeal any dismissal.

Dismissal of Formal Complaint

- The Title IX Coordinator may dismiss a formal complaint if:
 - A Complainant withdraws the complaint; or
 - The Respondent is no longer employed or enrolled in the district; or
 - There are specific circumstances that prevent the district from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination.

Reasonably Prompt Time Frames

Time frames for grievance process must be reasonably prompt, including appeals and internal resolution process

The Investigation

- The investigation shall be concluded within 40 calendar days from the date of the notice to the parties following a formal complaint
 - Initial Interviews of the Parties: Not less than 10 calendar days from the date of the notice to the parties following a formal complaint

- Follow-Up Questions: 5 calendar days to submit written follow-up questions after reviewing the responses of the other party and/or witness

- Determination of Responsibility: issued by the Decision Maker within 30 calendar days of receipt of the Investigator's report
- Written Appeal: Filed within 5 calendar days of receipt of the determination decision
- Written Response to Appeal: 5 calendar days upon receipt of notification by the Appellate Decision Maker of a party's appeal

Reasonably Prompt Time Frames

The Determination and Appeals

Reasonably Prompt Time Frames

- Limited extensions permitted only for good cause
- A concurrent criminal investigation does not alleviate Title IX investigating requirements but could support short delay
- Must try to accommodate schedules of parties or witnesses but they cannot indefinitely delay the grievance process by failing to cooperate

Conducting the Investigation

Evidentiary Standards

Understanding Evidence Threshold

Standard of Evidence

Districts must adopt a standard of evidence:

- Preponderance of the evidence = concluding that a fact is more likely than not to be true
- Clear and convincing evidence = concluding that a fact is highly probable to be true

Must use the same standard of evidence for all complaints against students and employees

Statute of Limitations - Example

When Jane was in 7th grade she was subjected to severe sexual harassment by several boys on the bus which included unwanted verbal taunts and grabbing her body. She never reported their behavior. Jane is now in 11th grade and is aware of the Me Too Movement. She decides to tell her high school guidance counselor about what happened and wants the boys punished.

Is Jane's report too late?

How far back must the district go to fulfill its Title IX obligations?

Burden of Proof

- The burden of gathering evidence and the burden of proof remains on the district throughout the grievance process
- Both parties have the right to provide evidence and witnesses but not required

- Goal of the investigation is to gather information so the neutral decision maker can make an accurate determination

The Parties' Rights

- Notice and opportunity to prepare
- Right to an advisor
- Opportunity to present evidence (documentation and witnesses)
- Cannot restrict the parties' right to discuss the allegations with others
- Right to review all evidence directly related to the investigation

Informal resolutions can take many forms, depending on the particular case. Examples include, but are not limited to, facilitated discussions between the parties; restorative justice; acknowledgment of responsibility by a Respondent; apologies; disciplinary actions against a Respondent or a requirement to engage in specific services; or supportive measures. Both parties must voluntarily agree in writing to participate in an informal resolution process, and either party can withdraw from the process at any time. The Superintendent/designee must agree to the terms of any informal resolution reached between the parties. If an informal resolution agreement is reached, it must be signed by both parties and the District. Any such signed agreement is final and binding according to its terms.

If an informal resolution process does not resolve the formal complaint, nothing from the informal resolution process may be considered as evidence in the subsequent investigation or determination. The parties will be advised that engagement in the informal resolution process is grounds for extension of the investigation timeline.

INVESTIGATION

1. The complaint will be investigated by a trained internal or external individual designated by the Superintendent, who should consult with District legal counsel concerning the handling and investigation of the complaint.
2. The Investigator may consult with the TIXC as agreed during the investigation process.

b. Allow parties to have their advisor at all meetings related to the complaint, although advisors may not speak on behalf of a party or interfere with the process.

As condition of enjoyment of any other rights.

Informal Resolution

Informal Resolution - Considerations

- Cannot be used to resolve allegations that employee sexually harassed a student
- Avoid using in severe situations or with violent incidents
- Title IX Coordinator determines if the informal resolution process should be utilized

Reasons to Consider Informal Resolution

- Parties may be more satisfied with outcomes they reach themselves
- Solutions are tailored to the parties' needs
- Process is less adversarial

Types of Informal Resolution

Mediation

- Informal Resolution Officer
 - Extensive experience needed
 - Private mediation a plus
 - School officer or third party?
 - Ensure no bias or conflicts of interest
- Who pays cost?
- Is result privileged and confidential?

Types of Informal Resolution

Restorative Justice

- Not defined in the regulations
- Purpose is to repair harm through facilitation
- Any requirement to admit responsibility?
- Supportive vs. Punitive

- Acknowledgement of responsibility by a Respondent

Retaliation Prohibited

No recipient or other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing....

Retaliation

- Any reports of retaliation should be made immediately to the Title IX Coordinator.
- Retaliation complaints may be filed under Title IX grievance process.
- The exercise of First Amendment rights does not constitute retaliation.

Retaliation

- Beware of disciplining for a non-harassment code of conduct violation where you learned of the violation via the sexual harassment complaint.
 - It can be done, but should be for an infraction for which you typically would discipline.
 - Someone other than the Investigator or the Decision Maker should process any such discipline and should know as little as possible about the Title IX Complaint.
- Disciplining a student based on a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith during the investigation of a complaint does not constitute retaliation.
