Schools Celebrate Parent Engagement Month in November

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - Houston County schools will participate in Parent Engagement Month throughout the month of November to recognize parent contributions. The celebration raises awareness of the important roles parents play in their child's education and highlights opportunities available for educators and families to engage in partnerships to improve student academic achievement. In addition to November being Parent Engagement month, National Parent Involvement Day is Thursday, November 21, 2019.

In support of this statewide initiative, Houston's Title I schools are offering parent activities during the month. A list of activities follows, organized by school.
