STUDENTS:

- Many of you have probably noticed the Huntland Mini Library that has been set up by the sidewalk in front of the school. Anyone from our school or the community is welcome to take a book from the little library. It is our hope that you will either bring that book back when you are finished or bring another book to donate so that someone else might enjoy it! There are books on all reading levels that will be rotated periodically, so check back to see how the selection has changed. We encourage you to use the Huntland Mini Library!
- Attention K-5 students: Don't forget to register for the Virtual Math Night. This is a fun night where math is incorporated into activities that you will enjoy. It is totally free, all you have to do is register! This is done with your family at home using an online platform.
- Jostens will be here Tuesday, March 2nd at 7:30 to pass out announcements and caps/gowns.
- Spring pictures will be made Tuesday, March 9th.
- If anyone would like to order a Love Like Janna shirt please see Mrs. Crystal by Friday.
- High school basketball boys play tonight at 7:30 at Fayetteville City.
- High school basketball girls play here tomorrow night at 7:00.
