

Internet Services

Comcast is pausing all data plans for 60 days and giving all customers unlimited data, and it's promising not to disconnect service or assess a late fee if someone contacts the company to let them know they can't pay their bills over that time. It's also offering free service through its WiFi hotspots across Alabama.

MCPSS Internet: Through some of our business partners, we are able to offer internet hotspots to our students and families for $50 per month (tax-deductible). Visit leanstreamrp.com/pages/district/2/mobile-county-public-schools to learn more. Other internet providers have also stepped up to offer discounted plans for families who qualify based on income.

Charter Spectrum, the state's largest provider, will offer free broadband and WiFi to households with K-12 or college students who don't already have a broadband subscription at any service level up to 100 Mbps. They're waving installation fees. You can call 1-844-488-8395 to enroll

East Alabama provider Beam is offering free 50 Mbps service for 30 days to new customers with K-12 or college students, along with free installation. You can call Beam for more details.

Alabama provider AT&T previously announced that it planned to waive internet overage fees, waive late fees and suspend termination of service during the pandemic. It's asking people who have trouble paying to call 1-800-288-2020.
