

Grade Four Essential Skills for Social Studies

September

- I can successfully participate in problem solving and the ways people exhibit civic skills.
- I can demonstrate the ability to obtain information from a variety of print sources on any state in the United States.

October

- I can identify major geographical features of the United States.
- I can read a map using the map key and the compass rose and map basics.

November

December

- I can record the latitude and longitude of a given location on a map.
- I can locate and identify the physical and human characteristics of a given map.

January

- I can describe to you how the changes in transportation affected the settlement of our country.
- I can name and locate countries neighboring the United States and their major cities.

February

- I can use data to analyze and explain the changing distribution of population in the United States.

March

- I can describe how the climate and environment influence human actions (ex. clearing land and forests).

April

- I can label all 50 states and their capitals.

May