The following activities are recommended to be completed on a consistent basis at home to support the 504 Accommodation Plan recently implemented.

- Provide a quiet study area (i.e., remove items not needed and supply with necessary materials).
- Enforce a consistent study time (i.e., schedule breaks, use timer to stay on task)
- Regular home-school communication (i.e., teacher and parent sign homework nightly)
- Reward appropriate behavior and/or completion of satisfactory in class and/or homework assignments
- Establish family routines for school, chores, meals, positive interaction and communication.
- Use behavioral contract/discipline techniques such as:
