ST. STANISLAUS PANTRY generally opens to serve the community around the last of the month. May's date will be the 22nd because of Memorial Day. Katie Wathen is heading this up and can take donations at St. Stanislaus either after 8:00 am Mass on Sundays or she can meet people there during the week either after work or during her lunch. You may text Katie for info and she will make any necessary arrangements. They take gently used clothes, non-perishable food and items like toilet paper, paper towels, diapers and other things that food stamps won't buy but people need for daily life! Check their Facebook Page for more information and dates.
