Dear Parents,

We are so glad to have your child at Blue Ridge Elementary School this year. We serve a wonderful community, and we are proud of our students. From time to time, we have the opportunity for media coverage of (local television, such as ETC 3, newspapers, webpages and other social media) to student accomplishments and other school events. Seeing your child's accomplishments can be a very exciting experience. However, it is not our desire to invade the privacy of any of our families.

Please check the appropriate box below to indicate if we have permission to print your child's picture and/ or name in the local media.

Sincerely,

Shannon D. Miller, Principal
