Appointments

Mr. Yorina read the appointments report.

1. Approve the appointment of Jarrett J. Ferentino as school solicitor.
2. Approve the appointment of Carl Yorina as finance chairperson.
3. Approve the appointment of Estelle Campenni as activities chairperson.
4. Approve the appointment of Frank Casarella as transportation chairperson.

Motion by Dr. Campenni, second by Mr. Yorina, to accept the appointments.

Motion by Mr. Dominick to amend the motion and re-appoint Ray Hassey as solicitor.
Seconded by Mr. Bolin.

On the Question: Carol DeSalvo of Wyoming, stated she admired Mr. Melone as a C.P.A. and stated her husband is also a C.P.A. and acknowledged them for doing what they do. Mrs. DeSalvo thanked Mr. Melone for his services. Mrs. DeSalvo wanted to know why Attorney Hassey, whom is a taxpayer, was passed over and stated Attorney Jarrett Ferentino does not live in the district, has no experience, but was hired as school solicitor. Mrs. DeSalvo stated Attorney Hassey has been with the district for twelve years and has done an excellent job and asked why wasn't he appointed. Mrs. DeSalvo stated she doesn't know Attorney Hassey, has no interest in him and has nothing to lose by making the statement that she is appalled and disappointed with the Board. Mrs. DeSalvo read an article in the Dispatch and stated our area has made headlines internationally with a corrupt government and judges going to jail. The Board is supposed to represent the good of our children. Mrs. DeSalvo stated when she reads these articles of Wyoming Area she is stunned and stated the Board is responsible for the decisions they make today. Mrs. DeSalvo then questioned the transparency for the guidance position stating she heard one of the candidates was a favorite among one of the new directors and scored lower than another candidate. Mrs. DeSalvo stated if it is true, this board is no better than the last one. Mrs. DeSalvo stated if it's protocol why can't the public know the top three names of the candidates and their scores. Dr. Casarella responded he didn't know who the candidates were because this board was not involved in picking the candidates. The new policy of this board is to have the principals and administration interview and then give the board the candidates by number. There are no names, so the board is not influenced to hire anyone but the top candidate. That will be with every hiree they have. Dr. Casarella stated he won't bend on anything, the board is here for the taxpayers. Dr. Casarella stated they will know the highest scoring candidate later on the agenda, but not the scores. Mrs. DeSalvo stated she felt bad for Attorney Hassey and stated he did wonderful work for the district. Dr. Casarella responded he couldn't say why Mr. Hassey wasn't hired because it is inappropriate because he was our solicitor and for twelve years did a very good job but was not recommended. Mrs. DeSalvo responded they should be able to tell the public. Dr. Casarella stated they opened the position, he was a candidate interviewed and asked Mr. Yorina to talk about the process. Mr. Yorina responded they talked about if the process was a good process. They came up with eight questions and all candidates were interviewed in one night. It took six hours for the interviews. Carl Yorina, Dr. Casarella, Deanna Farrell and Mary Louise Degnan did the interviews. Mr. Yorina stated he was the most knowledgeable with this process because of his prior jobs as an engineer and stated no scores were discussed. He was handed the score sheets upside down and placed them in his folder and moved to the next candidate. Mr. Yorina stated he is a fan of the Japanese practices of continued improvement and said if there were any professional human resource people in the audience he would gladly take any recommendations. Mr. Yorina stated his phone number was in the phone book. Mr. Yorina stated when the results were tabulated the top three candidates scored very close. These top three candidates were called in again to come before the board. Mr. Yorina stated that the solicitor's position is actually an appointment and the board just has to appoint one, it is in our policy manual. (it doesn't need to be advertised) Dr. Casarella stated the board got together and tried to be as transparent as they could be and tried to appoint someone that fit not only the credentials but the personality of the board. Dr. Casarella also stated the board will not come between the teachers and the principals doing their jobs. The board's job is budget, and that they do the right thing and policy. They are not educators. Dr. Casarella stated the board wants to do the right thing for the people that elected them.

Exeter, PA.

December 19, 2011

Gerald Stofco of Exeter commented that Attorney Butera and Attorney Hassey were residents from the district and pay taxes. He felt the board should have appointed someone within the district. Carol Borzell of Wyoming asked the board if Attorney Ferentino was friends with anyone on the board. Dr. Casarella responded yes. Mrs. Borzell asked the board how many were residents of Wyoming. She counted five. Mr. Bolin stated that Attorney Ferentino does wonderful things for the Wyoming Borough. Mr. Dominick stated the new board members should have held off a year before appointing a solicitor. Joe Valenti of West Pittston asked if there were nine applicants, how did they end up with five. Dr. Casarella responded the candidates were told of the interview process and should apply. Mr. Casarella stated he didn't know how they all got passed, but one didn't want to be in the interview process. Dr. Casarella stated that in the past it was whomever the board wanted. Dr. Casarella stated they could have put out an advertisement but it didn't need to be. Dr. Casarella also stated Mr. Yorina had the rating system. Mr. Yorina informed Mr. Valenti he could give him a list of the questions. Mr. Valenti asked if all board members had the questions. Mr. Yorina responded as far as he knew all the board had the questions. Mrs. Farrell stated they did not complete the interview with Attorney Coslett. Dr. Casarella responded but he answered all the questions. Mrs. Farrell stated there were four parts and he didn't answer all of them. Dr. Casarella responded that is beside the point. Mr. Yorina stated that he did have some input by board members for the questions. Mrs. Farrell stated she was very comfortable with the questions Carl had but maybe she could have understood them better. Mr. Bob Trusavage of West Pittston stated he hoped the new board would keep everyone informed and keep everything on the up and up. Tom Cason of West Pittston asked about a job description of the solicitor. Dr. Casarella responded he is the lawyer of the school district, keeps the district informed of school law, also reports with the contracts or any business agreements. Mr. Bernardi responded he gives the board professional advice. Mr. Cason questioned Mr. Bernardi as long as he has been here how many lawsuits were there. Mr. Bernardi responded there was one federal lawsuit that was settled out of court and a civil action against the district. Gerald Stofco of Exeter asked prior to the meeting who had the questions. Mr. Yorina responded as far as he knew he shared it with the four folks.... Mr. Yorina stated he had to check his e-mail but was positive they had the questions ahead of time. Dr. Casarella stated he got them the day before. Mr. Yorina stated he did get feedback because they wanted to add to the questions. Mr. Yorina stated this is the dilemma, at what point do you share the information so it doesn't get out to the candidates. Mr. Yorina stated he has to hold it to his chest for a certain period of time but has to release it to people to see it. Mr. Yorina stated the reason why he ran for school board is he didn't have a lot of trust in the board. Mrs. Farrell said she did get the list the day before.

At this time, Mr. Dominick commented regarding item #5 he only new the candidates as 1, 2, etc. In past experiences when they hired someone he later found out this person was asked to leave by another school district for different reasons. Mr. Dominick stated the district can't afford to hire for more money now. The timing isn't good right now with the budget. We have to give the kids coming out of college a chance. Does it mean we always have to hire the most experienced he asked. Mrs. Gober-Mangan stated the principals are the ones who found these candidates and stated they didn't see the candidates until today. The teachers should be involved so they can do their job the best to their ability. Mr. Dominick responded it has to do with the timing.

Dr. Casarella stated the administration make the appropriate call on the candidates based on credentials, their degree, certification, and clearances in front of them and they sign off on them. Dr. Casarella stated the board shouldn't be involved in what the education process is. We are here for two reasons he said, the budget and providing the best quality education at the most reasonable price for the students of this district. It has nothing to do with my next door neighbors or a friend or phone calls asking for favors. The people here are not doing favors but doing the right thing for the district. We are going to select the best candidates for the office. Joe Erzar questioned item #6. Dr. Casarella responded it is a personnel matter and he could not reveal that. Dr. Casarella stated the board once again took the lead from the administration and the interview process. Item number six is a long term position appointed by the building administrators and they are also rated by the administrators.

Mrs. Farrell motioned to appoint candidate #1 for the Guidance position. Dr. Casarella responded number five is candidate number one.

Roll Call: All Board Members present voted yes on the report. Mr. Yorina abstained on item #6 and voted yes on the remaining report. Motion passed.
