CLASSROOM NEWS

Weather was our focus this week! We talked about all different weather conditions. We also learned about how we stay safe if bad weather comes while we are at school and at home.

Our books this week are: It Looked Like Spilt Milk, It's Raining, It's Pouring, Little Cloud, & Rain, Rain, Everywhere.

Our book It Looked Like Spilt Milk, talked about how a big white "blob" looked like all these different things but in the end it was a cloud! We went outside and looked up at the clouds and talked about what kind of things we saw in the clouds.

Tomorrow we will try doing some shadow tracing outside!
