Special Features of Campus Life

Anderson University's 2,700 students enjoy a rigorous liberal arts-based education in an uncommonly supportive Christian environment. Students participate in a wide variety of campus organizations and nearly 20 NCAA Division II athletic teams. A small professor to student ratio allows AU students to have close relationships with their instructors and receive a high level of support in both academics and life.

TOEFL and other Requirements

AU admits International students who earn a score of 550 on the paper-based TOEFL test or a score of 75 on the Internet-based test. Wes evaluation is also required for all academic credentials.

Number of International Students

Anderson currently hosts 60 International students from 32 countries.

Notable Honors or Rankings

Anderson is ranked in the top tier of comprehensive colleges and universities in the Southeast by U.S. News & World Report magazine. In addition AU has been named one of "America's 100 Best College Buys," and one of America's Best Christian Colleges. The Princeton Review names Anderson University as one of the top institutions of higher learning in the Southeast.

ANDERSON UNIVERSITY

One of the South's most rapidly emerging private universities, Anderson University provides a highly rated academic program in a supportive Christian environment where students from all backgrounds are welcomed and appreciated. Anderson University was established in 1911. The Anderson campus, which is one of the most scenic in the southern U.S., is in the Upstate region of South Carolina, near the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains, and several scenic lakes. Anderson is a short drive from major cities such as Atlanta, GA, and Charlotte, NC, and is only 3.5 hours by car from the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

Academic Excellence

AU is a top choice among private South Carolina colleges for the most gifted students in South Carolina and elsewhere, ranking in the top 5 for Palmetto Fellows, the most accomplished SC students. Several of AU's academic programs have earned national accreditation, including Business, Visual and Performing Arts, Interior Design, & Education.

Affordable Tuition/Room & Board

Anderson University's tuition, fees, room and board total $16,600.00 per semester. Some scholarships are available for International students depending upon the individual applicant. ESL classes are included in the academic program for International students. AU offers international students up to $8,000.00 a year in academic scholarship.

Top Degrees for International Students

Students at Anderson University choose from more than 50 fields of study. Popular degree programs include Business, Education and Kinesiology, Interior Design, Pre-engineering, Christian Ministry, History, Biology, Graphic Design and Visual and Performing Arts.
