v Reviewed calendar events for March and April

During our meeting we discussed many important upcoming events in March and April. On March 8th, Miller will participate in a Code red drill and an Active Intruder drill. The Council discussed strategies to barricade the classroom and office doors in order to impede an active intruder. The Council also discussed the need of a resource person or officer on duty at the school. Mrs. Johnson informed the council that Miller Elementary is assigned a resource officer from Warner Robins High School. Mrs. Johnson informed the council that Miller will have a faculty meeting on Monday, March 5 to discuss with teachers the procedures for the upcoming code red and active intruder drills. Also in March, Miller will begin our “March Madness” in grades third thru fifth in preparation for the Milestones state standardized test.

Some important events in April include the Father/Daughter Dance on April 13th and the Milestones Pep Rally on April 6th. Students in third thru fifth grade will complete the Milestones state standardized test in the month of April.
