

This is the application for the Huntingdon Masonic Lodge #106 educational scholarship. It must be completed and returned to your School Counselor by April 1, 2015. Your counselor will list any pertinent information about you and any other scholarships you have received on the back of this application. Any late or unsigned applications will not be considered for this scholarship.

The application must be filled out by the student applying for this scholarship. Should you need more space feel free to add attachment, however please be brief.

Thank you for participating and good luck.
