“STAR³ Students” for January 2021

Franklinville Elementary School - Celeste Arellano - 5th Grade

Celeste Arellano is a hardworking student who never gives up on a task. She always works hard and tries her best. Even when she is feeling challenged, Celeste pushes herself to keep going and give it her best effort. She encourages her peers to always try their best as well. Her positive attitude is contagious to those around her. Celeste is a friend to everyone and treats everyone with respect. She is incredibly kind and always willing to lend a hand to someone in need. We have even noticed what a great sister she is to her little brother. Celeste can be seen holding his hand as they come into the building in the morning and giving him a hug and encouraging words as they separate to go to their different hallways. She is always polite, well-mannered, kind, and respectful to peers as well as adults. Franklinville Elementary School is proud to have Celeste Arellano as our STAR³ Student for January.

Grays Chapel Elementary School - Lyndsay Browder - 5th Grade

Lyndsay Browder consistently goes above and beyond in every aspect of her life. She completes all of her academic assignments to fidelity and pursues enriching activities on her own volition and with excellence. Lyndsay is respectful to her peers as well as all adults in the school. When it is time to work, she takes her work seriously, but when it is time to play, she lets loose and makes sure that everyone is having fun. Lyndsay is a great role model for her peers and has a very generous heart in helping her friends, teachers, and staff at school. Grays Chapel Elementary School congratulates Lyndsay Browder for being our STAR³ Student for January.

Level Cross Elementary School - Jeremiah Chambers - 4th Grade

Jeremiah Chambers is very respectful and displays responsibility by always turning his work in on time. He joins all of the Google Meet live lessons when we are remote learning and is an active participant throughout the lessons. He works well on his own and in small groups. Jeremiah can always be depended on to do the right thing when asked to help with tasks around the classroom. He constantly strives to do his best and help others in the classroom and in social settings. Level Cross Elementary School is pleased to recognize Jeremiah Chambers as our STAR³ Student for January.

Liberty Elementary School - Mia Villagomez Vazquez - 3rd Grade

Mia Villagomez Vazquez gives her best at all times. She goes above and beyond in all she does by showing perseverance both in and out of the classroom. Mia displays the school's BARK behavior on a daily basis by Being safe, Acting responsibly, Respecting others and herself, and showing Kindness to all! Mia is a friend to all she meets and has a positive attitude that brightens the day of everyone around her. Our school is lucky to have this amazing person as a part of our Bulldog family. Liberty Elementary School is proud to have Mia Villagomez Vazquez represent our school for the STAR³ Student award for January.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School - Dennia Serafin Chaires - 7th Grade

Dennia Serafin Chaires is known by her classmates and teachers as “respectful, responsible, and helpful in the classroom.” Dennia has also shown her teachers all year long that she exemplifies many characteristics of a STAR³ Student beyond even these. Dennia has worked hard to keep all of her work up-to-date and turned in on time. A positive role model, she spends time helping her younger siblings with their work in addition to completing her own. With this added “big sister” responsibility, Dennia has continued to be successful with all of her remote classes and strives to do her very best work. Husky Nation is proud of Dennia for doing what is best for her family and understanding the importance of the role that she plays in her siblings' education, along with being an exemplary student both in the classroom and while learning remotely. Congratulations to Dennia Serafin Chaires, Northeastern Randolph Middle School's STAR³ Student for January.

Providence Grove High School - Dylan Clark - 10th Grade

During this time of hybrid learning, Dylan Clark has diligently stayed on task throughout the entire semester. He is motivated and works on assignments promptly, and when he is at school on "A" days, Dylan is quick to complete tasks and help out in any way at the barn. No job is ever left undone with Dylan in the class. He asks thought-provoking questions for every assignment he finishes and does not give up until he understands what was required. Providence Grove appreciates his dedication to the class and his learning in this challenging semester. We cannot wait to see what his promising future holds. Congratulations to Dylan Clark, Providence Grove High School's STAR³ Student for January.

Ramseur Elementary School - Piper Jones - 1st Grade

Piper Jones always comes to class with a smile on her face and an eagerness to learn new things. She is also an encourager, always cheering "that was a great job" when a peer has an accomplishment or "that was a good try" when a peer makes an error. Piper is a natural leader during class activities, modeling growth mindset for others. During the past couple of months, she has assisted many peers with her knowledge of computers as they navigate an increase in technology. Piper often helps others log onto the computer, Canvas, and other online learning programs. She is a friend to all and her sweet disposition and personality never fail to liven up the classroom environment. Ramseur Elementary School is proud to recognize Piper Jones as our STAR³ Student for January.

Randleman Elementary School - Qu'mayne Whitaker - 3rd Grade

Qu'mayne Whitaker works hard to be a good student and puts forth an effort to complete his work while at school. He greets staff members each morning, letting them know how happy he is to be at school. Qu'mayne is always kind to others and goes out of his way to lend a helping hand when it is needed. Congratulations to Qu'mayne Whitaker, Randleman Elementary School's STAR³ Student for January.

Randleman High School - Westin Kallam - 9th Grade

Westin Kallam has maintained an overall A/B average during his first semester in high school and has handled the transition to high school very well in this unprecedented year. His mathematics teacher recommended him as a dedicated student who has applied himself to keeping up with his academic studies. Westin is a member of our junior varsity baseball team. Whether he is in the classroom, on the ballfield, working with his father at the family auto sales business, or helping out on his grandparents' farm, Westin demonstrates his good character and solid work ethic. We are proud to have him at our school and look forward to seeing what this young man will accomplish during his time in Tiger Nation and beyond. Randleman High School proudly recognizes Westin Kallam as our STAR³ Student for January.

Randleman Middle School - Daniela Morales-Arias - 7th Grade

Daniela Morales-Arias is a wonderful example of a hardworking and conscientious student. She consistently puts forth her best effort and is an active participant, whether learning remotely or in person. Daniela is a role model in the classroom and sets an example for other students. She seeks out opportunities to work with and help other students and has a great attitude toward school and life in general. Daniela is responsible with her time and always comes prepared and ready to learn. Through her efforts to help others and lead with positivity, Daniela makes a difference in our school community. She is a member of our school's Beta Club. Randleman Middle School is proud to select Daniela Morales-Arias as our STAR³ Student for January.
